

industryUPDATE

{ AWARDS }

Doerr-Hosier Center Lands Prestigious Award

The Aspen Institute's Doerr-Hosier Center, located at Aspen Meadows Resort, was presented the USA Chapter of the International Real Estate Federation's Special Purpose Award. Only seven projects were recognized at a gala held at the South Beach Yacht Club in San Francisco, with the awards decided by an international jury. The Doerr-Hosier Center, well known for its Catto Room and McNulty Room that feature floor-to-ceiling windows and expansive views, was designed by architect Jeffrey Berkus with a nod to the work of Bauhaus-trained Herbert Bayer.

{ PEOPLE }

MANAGEMENT

Michael J. Damion has been named general manager of the new Renaissance Denver Downtown City Center. A 25-year hospitality veteran, Damion was most recently GM of the boutique Hotel Latham in the Georgetown neighborhood of Washington, D.C. Prior to that, he had a decade-long tenure with Kimpton Hotel & Restaurant Group, managing various properties throughout the country.

Mark Stiebeling has been appointed general manager of the newly renovated Grand Hyatt Denver. Prior to