Midland's H Hotel Receives 2021 Appreciation of Beautification Award

Midland, Mich., (November 12, 2021) – The H Hotel today announced it is a recipient of the 2021 Appreciation of Beautification Award from the City of Midland Beautification Advisory Committee. The hotel recently completed a renovation of the outdoor Courtyard and Event Space.

“The H Hotel is honored to receive this recognition from the Beautification Committee,” said Derek Grimaldi, H Hotel General Manager. “This award inspires us to continue to set the bar even higher and work with the community to make downtown Midland a thriving environment for all to enjoy. Our outdoor Courtyard and Event space was designed to bring people together in celebration with great food and drink, beautiful landscaping, exquisite lighting and décor and areas for connecting with each other.”

Situated in the heart of Midland, Michigan, ranked the 4th best family-friendly town in America, The H Hotel offers guests access to some of Michigan’s greatest treasures. Ideal for both leisure and business guests alike, the Hotel features 130 contemporary guest rooms and suites; state-of-the-art fitness center and pool; more than 8,000 square feet of dedicated meeting and banquet space; and three unique onsite dining experiences including, European-inspired Café Zinc; ONE Eighteen, featuring classic American cuisine in a lively setting; and Oxygen Lounge, a hip spot to enjoy classic cocktails.
