

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE ORDER OF MERIT DOLCE CAMPO REAL 2021

In compliance with the Rules of Golf approved by R&A Rules Limited and without prejudice to the Local Rules of Permanent Application of The Silver Coast Golf Club (SCGC) and the local rules of the course, the following Regulation is established:

1. Participation:

- a. The Order of Merit Dolce Campo Real consists of 8 tournaments, to be held as indicated in the General Calendar of the SGC, open to all members and all players with a valid WHS certified Handicap managed by the SGC, being mandatory to have a valid license of the FPG (Federated). Players with a Handicap managed by the SCGC compete for each of the individual tournaments. Only Club members (annual and weekly memberships) compete for the final ranking of the Order of Merit. Players with a Handicap managed by the SCGC compete for each of the individual tournaments.
- b. Guests and other players with a WHS certified handicap can participate, who do not score for OM or compete for prizes for members and Club players, but only for prizes awarded to guests and tombola, if any (if existent).

2. Modality:

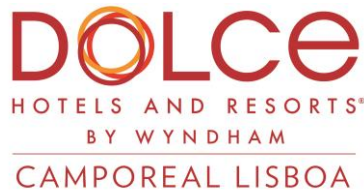

The tournaments are held in "Stableford", 18 holes, "Full Handicap" with reduced handicap for the purpose of classification to the limit of 28.0 for Men and 36.0 for Women.

3. Classification, Tiebreaker and Prizes in each of the Tournaments:

- c. In each tournament there is a general classification in "Stableford net" and "Stableford gross". There is also a classification in "Stableford net" for women as long as a minimum of five players participate.
- d. The tiebreakers, for classification purposes, are made successively in favor of the "handicap" (in the lowest "Net" and in the highest "Gross"), the best last 9, 6, 3 and 1 holes of the course and draw.
- e. Prizes - In each tournament the following prizes are awarded, which cannot be accumulated and the "Gross" General classification prevails and then the "Net" General classification: 1st "Gross" General - 1st, 2nd and 3rd "Net" General - 1st "Net" Ladies (for a minimum of 5 participants). There is a prize for the 1st "net" guest. There is also a general prize for "Nearest to the Pin" and "Longest Drive".
- f. The prizes are handed, preferably, at the lunch to be held at the end of the tournament, and there may be other classification or tombola prizes, at the discretion of the sponsors. Offers and prizes other than trophies will only be given to players present at lunch.

4. Classification, Tiebreaker and Prizes, at the end of the OM:

- a. The final classification of OM, exclusively for members (annual and weekly memberships), in each of the "Net" and "Gross" classes, is the sum of the scores obtained

- in a maximum of six (the six best) results in the 8 tournaments. In the event of an increase or decrease in tournaments, the sum of the results of the six events is maintained.
- b. The tiebreaker for the first places, final, is successively made in favor of the “handicap” at the date of the last event (in the lowest “Net” and in the highest “Gross”), in the highest number of first places , the highest number of events in which the player participated and draw.
 - c. Prizes - At the end of the OM, the following prizes are awarded, which cannot be accumulated and the “Gross” classification prevails, then the “Net” classification and then the “Net” classification, ladies, for identical classification positions: 1st, 2nd and 3rd “Gross” General - 1st, 2nd and 3rd “Net” General - 1st “Net” Ladies.
 - d. Special Awards: The 3 prize winners Gross General and 3 Net General referred to in paragraph c) above, also receive a reduction in the annual fee they have proposed to acquire for the year 2022, distributed as follows: 50% for the 1st, 30% for the 2nd and 20 % for the 3rd classified Net and Gross. This prize does not accumulate with other promotions / discounts in effect for annual fees.

5. Final Provisions:

- a. At any time, the SCGC Handicaps Committee may amend these Regulations and suspend, postpone or cancel the events, deciding definitively on omissions in the Regulations and Complementary Rules.
- b. Players will be able to claim the results, with the Sports Committee, up to 30 minutes after the announcement of the results, held at the prize-giving lunch. Any dispute regarding the approved Regulations and Rules will be decided, inescapably, by the SCGC Sports Council.
