Napa, Calif. (April 2, 2015) – For fans of backhands, volleys and vines, Silverado Resort and Spa will host two and a half day adult tennis camps August 21-23 and October 9-11, 2015. Participants will experience the best that Napa Valley wine country has to offer—fantastic tennis instruction in a beautiful setting combined with wine education and tastings. The camps include a Friday round robin and dinner, half day tennis instruction on Saturday and Sunday, a wine tasting class taught by Silverado’s sommelier, two for one winery tasting passes and two nights of accommodations at the resort’s recently renovated rooms. The camp also includes a free copy of Peter Burwash’s book “Tennis for Life” and complimentary court time.

Instruction is taught by Silverado’s pros Jacob Hansen and Katie Dellich. Both Silverado pros are seasoned veterans of Peter Burwash International (PBI), the world’s premier tennis management company.

Silverado Resort and Spa
A California landmark for more than 140 years, Silverado Resort and Spa began its life as a private estate and was converted into a contemporary resort featuring 380 guest rooms, a 15,500-square foot conference space, two championship golf courses and two signature restaurants. Now owned by World Golf Hall of Fame member and lead NBC analyst Johnny Miller and partners, the resort recently underwent renovations to its North Course, resort rooms and event spaces. Surrounded by Napa Valley’s more than 540 wineries, the resort also features a 16,000 square foot spa, 10 secluded swimming pools, 13 tennis courts and other recreational offerings. This October 12-18, the resort will host the Frys.com Open on its championship North Course. For more information on the resort or to make reservations, please visit www.silveradoresort.com or call 707-257-0200 or 800-532-0500.
