Description: An intimate hideaway located steps away from the famous Sunset Boulevard, The Chamberlain West Hollywood captivates with a collection of stunning 115 stylish suites, an exclusive guests-only restaurant and patio, and glamorous rooftop pool and terrace with 360-degree views of West Hollywood. A top hotel in Los Angeles, The Chamberlain was recognized in Condé Nast Traveler's 2018 Readers' Choice Awards.

Re-imagination: In June 2018, The Chamberlain debuted a multimillion-dollar, property-wide re-imagination that includes redesigned suites, lobby and meeting spaces, along with a refreshed rooftop pool deck and new restaurant concept. Re-imagined as a stylish retreat for the Hollywood fashionista, the hotel's new design features sophisticated interiors that are reflective of old Hollywood glamour while celebrating its place as a home away from home to many in today's fashion world. Designed by Jackie McGee of Perkins+Will, The Chamberlain West Hollywood's new lobby and 115 spacious suites feature a predominantly black and white palette with touches of monochromatic tones, in addition to carefully curated art pieces and contemporary furniture. At the helm of Executive Chef Henry Tapia, The Chamberlain's new guests-only restaurant and bar, Fits, serves New American cuisine in a chic yet comfortable atmosphere that evokes the feeling of an intimate Hollywood hideout. A beautiful garden patio and trellis hosts the most desirable seats in the restaurant to wine and dine with industry tastemakers.

Location:

The Chamberlain is discreetly located on a quiet tree-lined street but still close to all the best hot spots in West Hollywood and Beverly Hills. The hotel is positioned just minutes from some of area's most celebrated attractions, including the Pacific Design Center, the Sunset Strip, Rodeo Drive, West Hollywood Design District, The Grove and the Beverly Center.

Accommodations:

Each of The Chamberlain's 115 spacious suites feature separate living spaces, cozy fireplaces and luxe amenities. Most suites also feature private balconies. The fashionable, new suites offer sophisticated and comfortable accommodations ranging from 350-650 square feet. With the suites' large living areas and residential feel, The Chamberlain's accommodations are desirable for short retreats and extended stays alike.

Dining:

As part of the hotel's re-imagination, The Chamberlain debuted its new restaurant, Fits, created for the exclusive use of hotel guests for breakfast, lunch, dinner and in-suite dining. With a name inspired by the fashion industry and OLS Hotels & Resorts Founder John Fitts, the restaurant's new atmosphere evokes the feeling of an intimate Hollywood hideout complete with a cozy garden patio with a trellis which offer the most desirable seats for guests to mix and mingle. Led by Executive Chef Henry Tapia, Fits features New American cuisine with a menu comprised of small and shared plates, inspiring guests to share and connect over food. The dishes are a reflection of the destination and Chef Tapia's Mexican heritage with an upscale spin on local ingredients and flavors.

Rooftop Pool:

The Chamberlain's $1 million refreshed rooftop pool deck is an intimate retreat brought to life with bold, large-scale graphic patterns complimented by classic neutrals and vibrant green accents. Redesigned by Rossi Architecture, Inc., new features include additional poolside seating, lounge areas and private cabanas with plenty of seating and amenities for guests' convenience. Offering unparalleled panoramic views of West Hollywood, the Hollywood Hills and even Downtown Los Angeles, the updated space is an ideal relaxing vacation retreat or can easily become the backdrop for an elegant and lively event. Guests enjoy the year-round heated pool and dining alfresco with drinks and bites from the hotel's restaurant.

Meetings/Events:

The Chamberlain West Hollywood offers a unique collection of event spaces and venues for events for up to 80 guests. The hotel's sophisticated décor, chic design touches and elegant yet flexible spaces are ideal for meetings, small weddings and bridal celebrations, private parties, press events, photo shoots, trunk shows, castings and more.
