CHESAPEAKE HOSPITALITY ANNOUNCES CASSIE BOND AS NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF REVENUE STRATEGY

GREENBELT, Md., February 3, 2020 – Chesapeake Hospitality, an award winning third-party hotel management company with properties across the country, announced today Cassie Bond will serve in a new role as Vice President of Revenue Strategy. Chris Green, President and CEO of Chesapeake Hospitality, made the announcement.

Bond joined Chesapeake Hospitality in December 2008 as Revenue Manager and has stepped into several leadership positions within the company over the years leading to this most recent appointment. In her new role, Bond will create and execute the global revenue management strategy for the Chesapeake portfolio while leading all of the company's corporate and property level revenue management team members.

"First and foremost, we're a people focused company and people make our company what it is," said Green. "Our success is directly attributed to our incredibly talented team of professionals who deliver inspired solutions, innovative ideas and award-winning results. Cassie has made an impact across our portfolio. She is passionate about our work and leading our revenue team. We are thrilled to see what she does next."

Bond, HSMIA's Corporate Revenue Management Professional of the Year in 2018, is a Certified Hospitality Revenue Manager with the American Hotel & Lodging Association and a Certified Revenue Management Executive with HSMIA. She has also obtained her Preferred Hotel Group Revenue Manager Certification. Prior to joining Chesapeake, Bond served as assistant revenue manager of InterContinental Tampa as well as reservations manager for Embassy Suites USF and Wyndham Westshore Tampa.
