The Ballroom & Walled Garden

A MODERN SETTING OF REMARKABLE WARMTH and elegance, The Ballroom evokes old Charleston in attitude and aesthetic. A Viennese cast-brass palmetto chandelier and oversized gilded antique mirrors set the mood in this stylish 1,750-square-foot space accommodating up to 150 guests. White Oak parquet floors reminiscent of Versailles, as well as works by Charleston artist Douglas Balentine, specially commissioned for The Dewberry, add to the room's elegant atmosphere. Floor to ceiling drapes can be adjusted to create a rich play of light and shadow between the interior ballroom and the outdoor gardens.

LOOKING BEYOND THE BALLROOM is John Dewberry's interpretation of a traditional Charleston Walled Garden. At 2,250 square feet and featuring Charleston live oak ivy-covered historic brick walls, bluestone walkways and raised garden, the Walled Garden lends itself as the ideal space for an intimate gathering. This unique space accommodates 150 guests alone, and 300 guests in combination with The Ballroom.

LOCATED ON THE HOTEL'S 8TH FLOOR, the Rivers Room is a one-of-kind space not to be found anywhere else in Charleston. With indoor and outdoor capabilities, the space boasts sweeping views of the Charleston Harbor and Arthur Ravenel Jr. Bridge to the east and unparalleled views of Marion Square and the steeped skyline of the Holy City to the west. With 15 foot ceilings, this space provides beautiful natural lighting and comes with access of the north outdoor terrace.

Floor-to-ceiling glass walls give way to unparalleled panoramic views of the expansive outdoor terrace, which is punctuated by hand-painted citrus colored wall.
