

What	Charleston’s only waterfront hotel in the Historic District, HarbourView Inn offers one of the city’s most sought after locales, steps from the harbor and Waterfront Park with its famed Pineapple Fountain. A private rooftop is available to all guests giving them unparalleled views of Charleston’s historic harbor and the city’s distinct “Holy City” skyline. HarbourView Inn offers guests the intimate and genuine approach of a bed and breakfast with the features of a luxurious boutique hotel, including a complimentary artisan breakfast delivered in-room or to the rooftop patio, afternoon wine and cheese hours, and milk and cookies before bed. The hotel offers the city’s only private rooftop on the water, with unobstructed views of the harbor, where guests enjoy weekly live music sessions, local beer and wine sampling, and evening skyline tours hosted by a local historian. Well-appointed rooms showcase Lowcountry living with handmade wood furnishings by local craftsman Art Welling, while six historic wing rooms, housed in a former 1930s cotton warehouse, further add to the property’s authentic Charleston roots.
