Additional Information

Will the hotel's Catering Sales Event Manager be present on the day of our wedding?

Yes. Rechelle Williams-Delgado is your contact from beginning to end. Rechelle will be present at the event to provide critical oversight of the wedding preparations and service execution, and coordinate all on-site internal operations to ensure a seamless and flawless wedding day.

Will I have a location inside if the weather does not permit for my ceremony to be outside?

Yes, the hotel will reserve a space inside in case of inclement weather in which it does not allow us to host your ceremony or event outside. A collaborative decision will be made by the hotel, decorator, wedding planner and wedding couple on the day of the wedding. The location will be determined on the morning of or day before your wedding.

Why Should I hire a wedding planner?

It is very beneficial to have a professional wedding planner who will concentrate on your specific needs and ease the apprehension that often accompanies the planning of such a special event. A professional wedding planner is able to assist with design elements, vendor referrals and other selection processes while making sure that all event details are attended to, allowing you to relax and enjoy your wedding day while surrounded by friends and family. We recommended hiring a wedding planner from our Recommended Services list who is familiar with our hotel venue, standards and has an established relationship with our staff.

Are there any additional fees or taxes?

All ceremony and reception package pricing is subject to 24% taxable service charge and 6.5% sales tax.
