Loose Teas and Herbal Infusions

English Breakfast

This simple China Black tea is reminiscent of the tea that the English drank regularly in the 1800s. Full to medium bodied with hints of toast and honey, its strength lies in its simplicity, as well as its affinity for milk and sugar.

Darjeeling Black

The “queen of teas”, this is a blend of first flush and Autumnal teas from the finest tea gardens in the Himalayas. It has a light golden color and a fragrant “nose” of bright citrus along with darker notes of stone apricots and plums.

Egyptian Chamomile

A fragrant relaxing herbal infusion, completely caffeine-free, and wonderful with a touch of honey. It is made from the heads of Egyptian Chamomile flowers and has subtle notes of apple.

Jasmine

Fresh Jasmine flowers are added to a base of Pouchong tea to create a delicate and fragrant brew.

Love Life Green

Sweet flavors of coconut, vanilla and the high notes of strawberry are juxtaposed with darker notes of puffed rice.

Birthday Tea

A bright and bold decaffeinated herbal tea, which combines luscious fruit and berry flavors with flowers.
