

What	Centrally located in Charleston’s downtown Historic District steps from Waterfront Park and its famed Pineapple Fountain, HarbourView Inn offers a relaxing retreat and intimate waterfront residence for travelers seeking the perfect mixture of picturesque views, classic charm and southern hospitality. A private rooftop is available to all guests with unparalleled views of Charleston’s historic harbor and the city’s distinct “Holy City” skyline. HarbourView Inn offers the genuine approach of a bed and breakfast with the features of a luxurious boutique hotel, including a 24-hour concierge available to curate personalized itineraries for guests, complimentary artisanal breakfast delivered in-room, afternoon wine and cheese hour and milk and cookies before bed. The city’s only private rooftop on the water features unobstructed views and nightly rotating programming including live music sessions, local beer &amp; wine sampling and evening skyline tours hosted by a resident historian. Well-appointed rooms showcase Lowcountry living with handmade wood furnishings by local craftsman Art Welling, while six historic wing rooms, housed in a former 1930s cotton warehouse, further add to the property’s authentic Charleston roots.
