Otton A. Suarez Is New General Manager of El Conquistador Resort

Tucson, Ariz. (July 12, 2019) – Otton A. Suarez has been promoted to the General Manager of El Conquistador Tucson, a Hilton Resort in Oro Valley, a 428-room AAA Four-Diamond resort property managed by Prism Hotels & Resorts.

Suarez brings more than 36 years' experience in the hospitality industry in various capacities, including the past several at El Conquistador Resort as its Hotel Manager, overseeing all resort operations and guest interactions. He was actively engaged in the multi-million dollar total resort renovation, completed in 2017.

Prior to that, Suarez held management positions at Tucson's Westward Look Wyndham Grand Resort & Spa and Loews Ventana Canyon Resort – plus a multitude of other luxury brands nationwide. He currently serves on the boards of the Children's Museum Tucson | Oro Valley and the Greater Oro Valley Chamber of Commerce.

Aside from hospitality and his family, Suarez is passionate about Formula 1 racing and Chesapeake Bay Retrievers.

About El Conquistador Tucson, A Hilton Resort
