Port of Tampa, which docks major cruise lines that now cruise to Cuba, also features local shops and restaurants.

A Thriving Craft Beer and Culinary Scene, featuring breweries like Cigar City Brewing, whose Cubano-Style Espresso Brown Ale reflects the sensibilities and ingredients of Florida, or Coppertail Brewing Co., an independently-owned production brewery and tasting room in historic Ybor City.

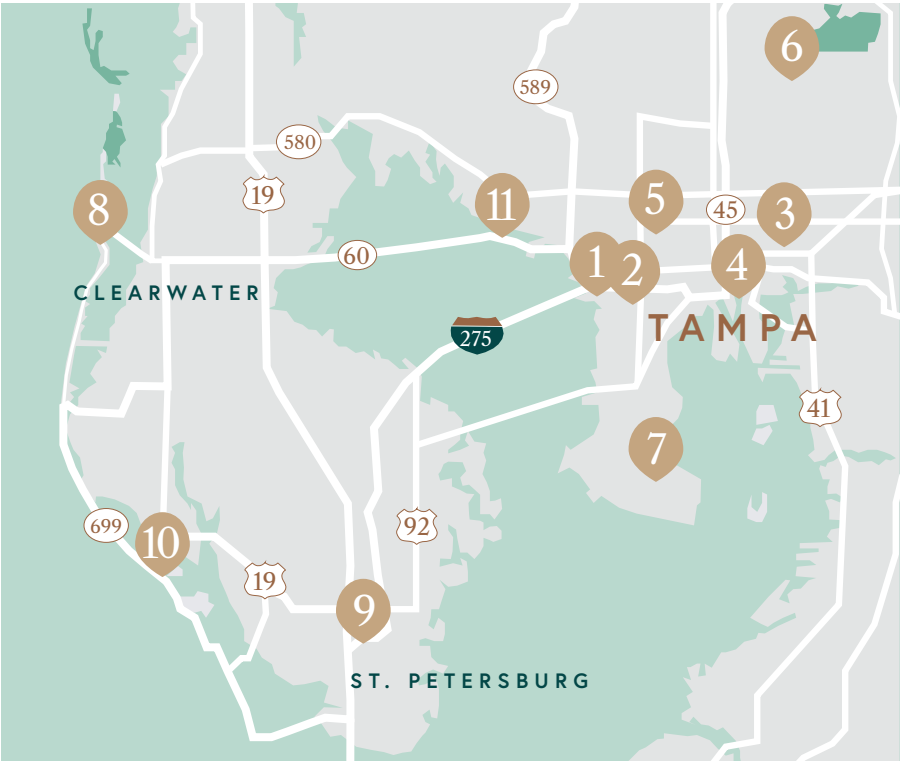

HOTEL DINING

The Spaniard: Hotel Alba's signature restaurant features casual, open-air dining with delectable Spanish-inspired dishes that draw inspiration from Tampa's culture, culinary traditions, and local ingredients as well as a lineup of creative cocktails and craft brews.

Buffalo Bayou: Proudly serving local roasts, Buffalo Bayou Coffee also offers a variety of homemade baked goods, sandwiches, salads and beer and wine by the glass.

Conveniently located between downtown Tampa and Clearwater Beach and within a five-minute drive to Tampa International Airport, Hotel Alba offers a boutique hotel experience steeped in true Southern hospitality and style that aims to provide travelers with a unique local experience in the Westshore business district. The Spanish word for sunrise, "alba" is a historic nod to the rise of Tampa's cigar industry in the late nineteenth century, a transformative shift that ushered in the cultural diversity and economic prosperity that continues to define Tampa today. So, welcome to Tampa. Welcome home to Hotel Alba.
