

Matthew Weiner puts 'Mad Men' days behind, and doubts his smash series will return on the big screen

Wyclef Jean sings at his birthday bash; Joe Torre says his first Yankee season was best; Chrissy Teigen does Factory work

BY MARIANNE GARVEY, BRIAN NIEMIETZ AND OLI COLEMAN / Wednesday, October 22, 2014, 2:00 AM

A
A
A

7

Share
 Tweet
 Reddit

2

SHARE THIS URL

nydn.us/1tJDUDB

Don't expect "Mad Men" series creator Matthew Weiner to spill any secrets from the eighth season of his hit show, which just wrapped editing. "It is all done and in cryogenic storage!" he told Confidenti@l at the annual Broadcasting & Cable Hall of Fame Awards in Midtown. As for the future of the AMC hit,

MOST POPULAR

MOST READ

MOST SHARED

- Elizabeth Pena died from alcohol report
- Teresa Giudice to serve jail time 'Orange is the New Black' prison
- Tori Spelling on Dean McDermott mistress: 'She's unattractive'
- Lohan may be speeding the 'I'
- Don Imus puts New Mexico C ranch on sale for $32M
- Chrissy Teigen jokes Canada as we call it in America, Wednesday
- Khloe Kardashian 'can't get in Lamar Odom
- J.Lo buys $22M Manhattan penthouse sources
- Hannibal Buress: Bill Cosby is
- Renee Zellweger's latest look splash at Elle red carpet event

EDITORS' PICK

How Justin Bieber

The hair.

ALBERTO E. RODRIGUEZ/GETTY IMAGES

Producer Matt Weiner says he's OK in his Mr. Mom role, for the moment, after completing the last 'Mad Men' season.

to go to school.' I'm that guy," he joked.

WYCLEF DOES BIRTHDAY GIG

Ready or not, Wyclef Jean is 45. Friends of the former Fugee threw him a surprise birthday party at the Hotel Hugo's Il Principe restaurant and its Bar Hugo rooftop lounge in the Village on Monday. Jean returned the favor by Weiner says he doesn't think there will be a movie down the line, like with "Sex and the City." "I don't think so. This is it. We have 92 hours of this," he said. "It's a lot more than a lot of these other shows. We had seven years of time passing and actually eight if you count the pilot."

Weiner, who wrote the pilot 14 years ago, says the show has taken up a third of his life, and he's grateful he ended the show on his terms. "Sometimes they just call you and say 'That was your last episode.' It happens 90% of the time." Luckily, he now can choose his own projects, even if he is out of work at the moment. "Right now I'm the dad who follows the kids around in the morning in my bathrobe saying, 'What are you doing?' and they say, 'We have went from teen idol to wild child swooning legion of teenage fans. Of course, we could only be talking about sinning sensation Justin

Kris Jenner spotted on dinner date with mystery man

Bruce Jenner may not be the only one back in the dating game. Kris Jenner, 58, was photographed on

Kristen Stewart: Taking a break from acting, move to downtown L.A. and make art

The 24-year-old "Twilight" star told USA Today she

Katy Perry lands in Morocco to celebrate birthday: report

Katy Perry is making like it's her birthday all week long. The almost 30-year-old pop star chosen to go to

Teresa Giudice to serve jail time at 'Orange is the New Black' prison

A federal judge has nixed reality TV star Teresa Giudice's attempt to performing an impromptu concert. After asking manager Alex Julian if there was a guitar in the house, Wyclef went to work. “It became a sing-along for the entire bar,” we’re told by a guest who sang to hits including “Gone ’Til November,” “Ready or Not” and “Hips Don’t Lie.”

PROMOTED STORIES

TAYLOR HILL/GETTY IMAGES

Longtime Yankees skipper Joe Torre says his first season, in 1996, was the most fun.

THE YANKEES’ UNTOLD TORRE

Joe Torre spent 12 years managing the Yankees and enjoyed all but the last 11. “The first year I managed the Yankees, in ’96, we were underdogs. We won the World Series,” Torre told us at the Waldorf Astoria on Monday. “That was the last bit of fun we had, to be honest with you. We won after that, but it was always very ... it was a high-wire act.”

CHRISSY TRIES FACTORY LABOR

Chrissy Teigen took part in a Gap Factory shoot, and Confidenti@l got behind-the-scenes shots of the supermodel having a blast. She revealed her favorite piece from the line, saying: “(It) has to be the black jumpsuit because I’m lazy, and the jumpsuit you can do anything with!” Also in the campaign are Victor Cruz, Chanel Iman and Noah Mills.

JONES EXPLAINS ‘EVERYTHING’

Despite “The Theory of Everything’s” focus on Stephen Hawking’s body deteriorating, star Felicity Jones says the film actually has a happy — if bizarre — ending. “The ending is not conventional,” Jones told us at

EDITORS’ PICK

‘White Bird in a Blizzard,’ movie review

Having carried the mediocre smash “Divergent,” Shailene Woodley now uplifts

Allison Williams tries out boys’ life for ‘Peter Pan’

Allison Williams, who plays ladylike Marnie on HBO’s hit show “Girls,” has just begun rehearsals for

Varvatos is giving Motown a hot encore

John Varvatos said Wednesday he’ll be opening a store in Motown, where he spent the first 20 years of his life.

Lohan may be speeding the ‘Plow’ exit

Lindsay Lohan’s West End debut isn’t turning a profit for the Playhouse Theater in London — and it could

‘Avengers: Age of Ultron’ trailer gets unexpected early release

The first teaser trailer for ‘Avengers: Age of Ultron’ hit the web unexpectedly

JONATHAN LEIBSON/GETTY IMAGES

Felicity Jones stars with Eddie Redmayne in 'The Theory of Everything,' about Jane and Stephen Hawking.

the film's premiere at the Museum of Modern Art on Monday. "It's not the couple living happily ever after. It's a happy ending where they are happy with other people."

BRODERICK IN DAD ROLE

Matthew Broderick spent his night off from "It's Only a Play" bonding with son James Wilkie. They rode a CitiBike together, and later a spy spotted the duo strolling in the West Village talking movies. "James was asking about funny movies and Matthew told him he's got to watch 'Blazing Saddles.' It was a very sweet moment," said our eyewitness.

'NOAH' PRAISED FOR NOT GOING BEASTLY

The Russell Crowe film "Noah" had hundreds of animals in it, but no actual animals were used. That's why director Darren Aronofsky, who used CGI creatures instead, will receive the Humane Filmmaker award from the Humane Society of the United States on Nov. 21 at Cipriani. "It was quickly apparent that working

Kathie Lee & Hoda: Oscar de la Renta was a rare beauty

He dressed them all — from Princess Di to Jennifer Lawrence — and we'd like to pay tribute to Oscar de la

'The Fortress of Solitude,' theater review

After 10 years in development, "The Fortress of Solitude" is nearly halfway there.

'Force Majeure': Movie review

Look for this very original picture as a possible Best Foreign Film Oscar nominee. A ski trip snowballs into disaster

Elizabeth Pena died from alcohol abuse: report

Elizabeth Pena died from medical complications related to alcohol abuse, according to a report.

Shia LaBeouf appears in 'cannibal' music video

Shia LaBeouf inspired a very bizarre song two years ago — and he now appears in the song's accompanying

Renaissance Man: Pharrell Williams wears many hats

You can find Williams in "Tired." TI

VALERIE MACON/GETTY IMAGES

Writer/director Darren Aronofsky says no animals were harmed or even annoyed in the making of 'Noah.'

with live animals would be dangerous for them," Aronofsky says. "I was happy with the results, and I encourage other filmmakers to look at digital solutions."

GARNER'S WORKING ON HER SLICE

Not only did Jennifer Garner receive a special honor at Elle's Women in Hollywood celebration, but presenter Steve Carell made sure to give her some pizza before she took the stage. "Thank you for that lovely, edible introduction," Garner said, adding, "and thank you for getting and maintaining an erection during our love scene in 'Alexander,'" their new film.

TINA, AMY HAVE ELLE OF A PARTY

The Golden Globes are just three short months away, and the Elle Women in Hollywood party at the Four Seasons in Beverly Hills might have supplied great fodder for seatmates Tina Fey and Amy Poehler. The terrific twosome are slated to host again on Jan. 11. Fey appears on one of the mag's eight celebrity covers for the November issue.

SWIFT DEPARTURE

From cat lady to bag lady. Don't be fooled by Taylor Swift's seemingly low-maintenance, casual street style. The 24-year-old superstar may walk through airports carrying just one dainty handbag, but trailing behind is an enormous cart filled to the top with suitcases. Somewhere in there is probably an entire bag filled with cat toys and knitting needles. Swift later got on a plane from Sydney, Australia, wearing a full cat-printed jumper.

KERRY-ING THE DAY

Kerry Washington looks chic in a Calvin Klein dress at in Beverly Hills.

whose long musical resume is part Michael Jackson, part Phil Spector, hasn't limited his self-expression

Celebrity photos of the week

See what all the stars were up to this week ...

'Citizenfour': Movie review

Edward Snowden's name is famous worldwide, thanks to his decision to leak thousands of covert government documents.

Steve Coogan to replace Philip Seymour Hoffman in 'Happyish'

Steve Coogan is replacing Philip Seymour Hoffman in one of the late actor's final

Film tracks whistleblower Edward Snowden's journey

"Citizenfour" has the human story of Edward Snowden, and how director Laura Poitras got drawn into

MICHAEL BUCKNER/GETTY IMAGES

Tina Fey (l.) and Amy Poehler team up at Elle's Women in Hollywood celebration in Beverly Hills.

'HILLS' BACK IN STYLE

Celeb weekly Life & Style is

More videos:

JASON MERRITT/GETTY IMAGES

Kerry Washington of 'Scandal' dresses up Elle's Women in Hollywood event.

celebrating “10 years of glamour and gossip” at an anniversary party in L.A. Thursday night. The glossy promises that performers who “stole the spotlight” when it launched in 2004 will be there to celebrate, including “The Hills” stars Kristin Cavallari, Heidi Montag, Spencer Pratt and Brody Jenner, who’ll also be the DJ. The party, sponsored by L.A. Colors nail polish, will be at the Skybar Mondrian.

QUOTES OF THE DAY

“Coming from a small island in the Caribbean, I could have never ever made it anywhere but here.” — Oscar de la Renta, talking to Confidenti@l at the 2012 Lincoln Center Couture Council luncheon.

“I hate people with perfect teeth.” — Larry King, Twitter, Sunday