

New York's Hautest Suites For Valentine's Day

BY ROSA SANCHEZ | NEWS | FEBRUARY 8, 2016

New York City never gets old, especially when you get to stay at luxury hotel suites on the weekends! For this Valentine's Day, some of New York's hottest hotels are offering lovers' packages which – let us tell you – are worth every penny. Pamper your one and only with these deluxe V-Day specials and enjoy an unforgettable weekend at one of the city's top properties.

Hotel Hugo – Romance Suites

In the center of New York's most fashionable district is the modern and super hip Hotel Hugo.

Priced at $1,200 per couple, the V-Day special includes:

- Dom Perignon Rose, Russ and Daughters caviar blini served by personal staff

- Four-course dinner at Il Principe, including shaved black truffles and wine pairings for each course
- Private table at Bar Hugo, with Dom Perignon Rose and Maison du Chocolat truffles
- Evening helicopter tour and room and Hotel Hugo are priced separately but discounted greatly

Other than the V-Day specials, suites include a 32" flat-screen television, wireless Internet access, workspace with telephone and voicemail, a premium Keurig coffee maker and a refreshment center with a mini-refrigerator. The hotel, located on Soho's Greenwich Street, boasts a full-service restaurant with outdoor seating, a duplex rooftop bar and lounge, a 400-square-foot Fitness Studio, 24-hours Business Center and a meeting space, perfect for those times when business calls in the middle of your staycation.

With avant-garde installations and a true New York feel, this metropolitan love package is well worth the investment.
