

"The Iroquois is completely personal and unique. Right in the middle of things on this car-free island, it still retains a sense of solitude and remoteness, hence the perfect location score. Airy rooms have cottage decor, and staff just treat you perfectly. American cuisine is served by candlelight at the Carriage House."

Awarded a perfect 100 Location points by Condé Nast Traveler Magazine for its beautiful waterfront setting, the Hotel Iroquois offers forty-five guestrooms and suites. All are classically sophisticated and comfortable, with fine furnishings and vibrant colors. The hotel's Proven Winners Signature Gardens are designed with splashes of brilliant color and foliage. A private sunbathing beach provides a summertime retreat while the lively streets of Mackinac are only one block away. A more delightful, convenient and picturesque setting would be difficult to find. Fine dining and cocktails can be enjoyed on property in the waterfront Carriage House dining room or al fresco on the veranda. Nightly entertainment at the piano bar.
