

MODERN LUXURY

LOS ANGELES CONFIDENTIAL

OCEANA SANTA MONICA

BY THE NUMBERS: A $25 million transformation means hanging swings greet guests by the front doors of 70 suites, which feature four-poster beds outfitted in Loro Piana bedding, Frette linens and hand-tufted Nepalese rugs. THE VIBE: Ultra-residential in feel, the 850- to 1,700-square-foot rooms are like mini condos, with custom-commissioned high-end furnishings and interiors by home designer Anna Busta. CULINARY CRED: JIRaffe's celebrated chef, Raphael Lunetta, curates the indoor-outdoor resto—serving three meals a day plus overnight room service—for hotel guests only, with decor inspired by coastal sunsets and hyperlocal cuisine influenced by regular shopping trips to the Santa Monica Farmers Market. SPECIAL TOUCH: Oceana has a custom art program in collaboration with local artists and international photogs. ONLY HERE! Every amenity and facility—including the pool, posh courtyard lounge, fitness studio and spa, beach cruisers and Yada Yada Yoga classes on the beach—are available for guests only, creating a residential, long-stay vibe. From $525 per night, 849 Ocean Ave., Santa Monica, hoteloceanasantamonica.com

