

The Santa Fe , experience™

ONLY AT HOTEL SANTA FE

FOOD AND DINING DAY

We've curated this day specifically for those with a great palate who love all things food.

This day is dedicated to the unique flavors of the Southwest mixed in with some global flair.

You'll experience Santa Fe's culture of food with tastes of 400 years of tradition and new takes on old favorites.

Breakfast Café Pasqual's

121 Don Gaspar Ave

Start your day with breakfast at Café Pasqual's. For a New Mexican twist on breakfast, try the Stack of Three Corn Pancakes or the Huevos Barbacoa Con Chile D'Arbol Salsa. If you want to avoid the wait, grab a breakfast burrito to go.

Shop and Taste Savory Spice Shop

225 Galisteo St

Walk down the block to Savory Spice Shop to find some flavors of the Southwest to bring home with you.

Coffee Collected Works Bookstore

128 E Marcy St

For a mid-morning pick-me-up, grab coffee at Iconik Coffee Roasters inside of Collected Works Bookstore and browse the New Mexican cookbook selection.

Shop The Chile Shop

109 E Water St

Head back towards Water Street to The Chile Shop – you'll know you're there when you see the door surrounded by chile tiles. Our state question is, "Red or Green?" You can also order "Christmas" (both red and green chile).

Shop and Taste Santa Fe Olive Oil and Balsamic Co.

116 Don Gaspar Ave

Head back to Don Gaspar Ave to Santa Fe Olive Oil and Balsamic Co. This little store is full of flavored olive oils and vinegars in combinations from spicy to sweet. Sample as much as you want and take home a bottle of your favorite.

Lunch The Shed (Open for lunch from 11:00am-2:30pm)

113½ E Palace Ave

If you're already hooked on our chile, head over to one of Santa Fe's most popular spots, The Shed. This is a hot spot for locals and guests, but the wait is worth it. Make sure to get a Shed Red margarita – a sweet drink with pomegranate liqueur.

Grab a bottle of Wine and Snacks Sena Plaza

125 E Palace Ave Suite 20

These shops are in one of the oldest surviving houses in Santa Fe. Grab a bottle of wine to take back to the hotel with you from La Casa Sena's wine shop and stop by Todos Santos Chocolates for a sweet treat.

Shop and Taste Cheesemongers

130 E Marcy St

Head over to Cheesemongers to sample and shop a worldwide selection of fine meats and cheeses. Take your favorites back to the hotel with you to snack on later.

Rest and Happy Hour Hotel Santa Fe

1501 Paseo de Peralta

Head back to Hotel Santa Fe to rest and freshen up before going out to dinner. Grab a prickly pear margarita at the bar before leaving for dinner.

Dinner El Mesón

213 Washington Ave

Drive or use a rideshare service to shuttle over to El Mesón, for Spanish cuisine one block north of the historic Santa Fe Plaza. The restaurant offers a variety of live Jazz, Flamenco, Tango, and Blues nightly.
