Egencia, Expedia's business travel division, has announced the winners of its annual awards program, revealing the top 100 preferred hotels around the globe.

The Egencia program honors properties with the goal of recognizing those that are committed to customer service for business and corporate clients.

The finalists for the fourth annual awards program range from major hotel brands to independent properties and were selected based on satisfaction ratings, pricing, desirable amenities for corporate travelers, customer service and the overall guest experience in 2018.

"A great business traveler experience is just as important to us as providing a great business travel platform here at Egencia, which is why each year we recognize and reward hotels that deliver outstanding customer service, tremendous value for money and popular amenities," said Andrew
