"Grab your lederhosen and head to one of San Francisco's top spots for the true beer lover this Oktoberfest.

"Jasper's Corner Tap & Kitchen in San Francisco's Union Square neighborhood is expanding its vast beer menu, which features 18 or more local beers on tap, to include German style favorites this Oktoberfest, including Sierra Nevada's collaboration with the 200-year-old Bitburger Brewery in Germany.

"Offered September 20, 21 and 22, the Oktoberfest revelry at Jasper's includes options made for sharing among friends: De Prost!

"Bucket of pick-your-own German-style beers (from $20 for four beers); and the De Wurst Platter of sausages, pretzel, pickled vegetables, potato pancake and mustards ($15 per person, minimum two people).

"The more the merrier in true Oktoberfest tradition as groups of six or more receive one free De Prost! Bucket with the purchase of De Wurst Platter – that's a free round of beers for the group!"
