MEET YOUR WEDDING SPECIALIST

Hello! I'm Sasha, your Weddings Specialist here at InterContinental Mark Hopkins San Francisco.

Allow me to introduce myself! I have long known that events are my passion. Yes, it's incredible to have the thrill of walking into a ballroom, after months of planning, seeing the flowers put into place, lighting adjusted and every napkin perfectly folded. But that's not what makes the day so special and memorable. It's the very first introduction I have to a beautiful couple that is about to embark on such an exciting chapter of their lives. It's the details that are customized to perfection, knowing that when they walk into that ballroom, it will be for them. Because this is their day to celebrate with their families and friends, to make those special memories. And the greatest joy for me is to have had the pleasure to be a part of that.

That's why I love weddings – for those lovely relationships I get to create with each and every couple in planning their most special event.

Throughout my experiences as an events manager, whether it was coordinating a wedding in Anaheim, executing an event at Skywalker Ranch, or putting together a 1,200 person convention in Times Square, I have found that what makes any event successful is building that trust and that relationship with our special guests. So, if you're looking to host an event that can be far beyond your expectations, give me a call at the fabulous Mark Hopkins, and let's plan something wonderful together!
