HISTORY: The land, with its giant redwoods, was originally home to the Pomo Indians, and was discovered by sailors shipwrecked off the Mendocino Coast. Loggers started arriving around 1850 and built a series of mills along the coast. Chutes were developed to transfer lumber into waiting schooners for the journey to San Francisco. The Newport chute was constructed circa 1865 and a small town was built around it on what is today the site of The Inn at Newport Ranch.

From a young age, open space and beautiful landscapes resonated with Will Jackson, founder of The Inn at Newport Ranch. He enjoyed reading about America's expansion westward and the idea that, in the 1860's, you could go west and lay claim to vast tracts of some of the most beautiful land in the world. In 1986, Will and his family bought the land that now harbors the Inn at Newport Ranch. The new Inn is a culmination of Will's dream - - to share the beauty and adventure of this magical land with others.

DESCRIPTION: Located off California's scenic North Hwy 1, 20 miles north of Mendocino, The Inn at Newport Ranch is part of a 2,000-acre coastal cattle ranch and timber preserve on the site of the former town of Newport. With over a mile of oceanfront, three miles of ridge tops, panoramic coastal views and more than 20 miles of world class hiking and riding trails through redwoods and along the coast, the ranch is a unique private domain for vacations, small conferences, retreats, family reunions, weddings, and special events.

ACCOMMODATIONS: The Main Inn Building has three guestrooms on the second floor, each with a private bath, and all have access to the 6-person hot tub on top of the water tower with views of the ocean and hills. The Redwood House has three suites, each with unique architecture and a living room, dining area, small kitchen, fireplace, and outdoor terrace or deck with an outdoor grill and views of the ocean. Two of the suites have their own private hot tub, while the third has a private sauna. Barb's place is the most private room and has its own small terrace with a seating area and a view of the ocean. The Ranch House is another 2-bedroom suite with kitchen and terrace with views of both the ocean and redwoods. Opening in the Spring of 2020, Hearthstone offers a cozy fireplace, kitchen and majestic views of the Pacific Ocean and bluffs. Finally, Sea Drum is the owners' private ocean side vacation home designed by the same architects as the Newport Inn buildings. It has four bedrooms (all with private baths), one of which has two bunks and a double bed. Each room has a private bath. Sea Drum will accommodate up to 10 people. The Inn at Newport Ranch's five guest rooms and five suites are furnished to provide the ultimate in comfort and privacy.
