

23 Hotels with the Best Views of Fourth of July Fireworks

 Ramsey Qubein

Independence Day is a time of celebration and patriotic camaraderie. After your barbecue, picnic, or cookout, gather with friends in these amazing hotel rooms, suites, and terraces to catch the fireworks as they light up the night sky. (Don't worry, if you miss it this year, you know which rooms to book for 2020.)

Room 2901 at the InterContinental Miami

This bay-facing room offers full-frontal views of the InterContinental Miami's own fireworks display taking place over Biscayne Bay. Guests can also splurge on the two-floor Royal Palm Presidential Suite designed by tennis icon Venus Williams if they are looking to impress on this national holiday. The building is an icon in the Miami skyline known for the projected light show on its facade each night.
