

FOURTH OF JULY IN MIAMI

IF YOU HAPPEN TO FIND A FELLOW PATRIOT IN MIAMI, WELL, YOU'VE COME TO THE RIGHT PLACE.

Let's be honest, Miami doesn't exactly "do" holidays well, probably because every day seems like a holiday (we can make an exception for Halloween — anyone that's been on Lincoln Road on October 31st can attest that it's an all out freak show). We have Santa wearing snorkeling gear, New Year's Eve typically doesn't start until 3 hours past midnight, and yes, on one occasion someone asked us what date the Fourth of July was that year. But fear no more! We've got you covered. Below are the places to be on this beautiful, firey, midsummer classic:

2. INTERCONTINENTAL IN DOWNTOWN MIAMI

Neighborhood: Downtown

Celebrate the 4th with BBQ and fireworks at the InterContinental in Downtown Miami. Head to the luxury hotel's rooftop pool to enjoy a festive buffet featuring classic BBQ dishes, cocktail specials, and live entertainment. Once the sun sets, you'll be in the perfect spot to watch the fireworks with sweeping views of Biscayne Bay. Of course, a great party wouldn't be complete without something to take home, so the InterContinental will be providing party favors to all guests who attend. Adult $45, kids 6-12 years old $20.
