

INTERCONTINENTAL.
SAN DIEGO

PET POLICY

InterContinental San Diego welcomes guests traveling with their dogs. A maximum of one 70-pound dog or two dogs totaling 70 pounds or less are permitted for a fee of $100 per stay. An additional deposit of $250 is required and will be refunded if the following terms and conditions are adhered to:

- Dogs are to be non-aggressive and well socialized with people and other animals. Restricted breeds include but are not limited to Rottweiler, Doberman Pincher, Chow, Akita and Pit Bull.
- Dogs must be licensed and wear ID tags at all times on hotel property.
- Dogs should be up-to-date on vaccinations, and free of ticks and fleas.
- Dogs should be with their owners at all times and never left unattended.
- Dogs must be secured before hotel staff, including housekeeping and in-room dining team members, enter a guestroom.
- Noise complaints from other guests or employees will result in management or security contacting the dog owner to address the situation. If the issue is not resolved, InterContinental San Diego reserves the right to ask the owner to relocate the dog to a kennel or to vacate the guestroom entirely. Compensation provided to other guests due to noise complaints will be deducted from the deposit.
- Dogs must be on a 6-foot leash (maximum length) when outside the guestroom.
- Dogs are not allowed in the restaurants, bars, Club InterContinental, pool area, health and wellness center, or meeting space.
- Guests are responsible for cleaning up after their dogs. A relief area is located on Lane Field Park in front of the hotel and bags are provided. Please dispose of any waste in trash receptacles.
- Guests are responsible for any damages to the guestroom or other hotel facilities caused by their dog. Guest agrees that the condition of the guestroom is based solely on the judgment of InterContinental San Diego upon departure.
- Guest assumes financial and legal responsibility for any harm caused by their dog during their stay. Should a guest's dog cause injury to other guests, patrons, employees, visitors, vendors or anyone lawfully on the hotel premises or their property, the dog owner agrees to indemnify and hold harmless InterContinental San Diego and all partners, directors, officers, employees and affiliated entities of the foregoing from and against any damages, loss, litigation, cost or expense by any of the foregoing as a result of any damage or injury caused by the guests' dog.

As a responsible pet owner, I agree to follow the above policies. I understand that any violation will result in the forfeiture of my $250 deposit, plus the possibility of additional fees to the credit card on file to cover any damages or compensation to other guests.
