Description: A true boutique hotel with its own character, style and highest levels of personal service, Le Parc is well known to rising stars, musicians on tour, and trendsetting celebrities in search of a few days off the grid.

The hotel blends quiet comfort with easy access to the city's most glamorous shopping, dining, and entertainment venues. Its 154 spacious suites offer private balconies, kitchenettes, fireplaces, fully stocked minibars, and enough space for extended stays with four-legged friends may make this intimate and stylish West Hollywood retreat very hard to leave.

The Skydeck surrounding the rooftop pool whispers, "It's time to relax," and its restaurant dishes out farm-fresh flavors and elevated classics.

Location: One block west of La Cienega Boulevard and a block north of Melrose Avenue the hotel stretches half-a-block on West Knoll Drive, a quiet tree-lined street in West Hollywood's Design District. Restaurant Row, with over 30 renowned restaurants, is a block away and the colorful Melrose Avenue and Robertson Blvd., with their eclectic antique and chic clothing stores are nearby. The Beverly Center and Grove at Farmers Market, both premier shopping destinations, are minutes away as are the Sunset Strip, Rodeo Drive and Entertainment Venues, such as the Hollywood Bowl, the Greek Theatre and others are easily accessible as are all of L.A.'s sought after tourist attractions.

Accommodations: Each of Le Parc's 154 suites are spacious and stylish, offering a minimum of 650 sq. ft. to close to 1,000. Each features a separate living area, kitchenette and dining area, and bedroom areas with king beds or double beds.
