Lotte New York Palace Hosts Steve Cohen's 5,000th 'Chamber Magic' Show

Friday 6 October 2017 9:00 PM

For the past 17 years, renowned magician Steve Cohen has wowed crowds from all over the world with his 'Chamber Magic' show, and on Friday, October 6, Lotte New York Palace will host his 5,000th show. To commemorate this incredible milestone, a proclamation from the mayor's office will be read and Cohen will accept an award from the President of The Society of American Magicians founded by Houdini. During the performance, Cohen will perform fan favorites as well as two new mind-blowing tricks, The Miraculous Rising Cards and The Ring and Walnut. The celebration will continue immediately following the show with a special cocktail reception, where guests can enjoy the hotel's special Think A Drink cocktail – an ode to one of Cohen's renowned acts. Please note that the dress code is Cocktail Attire, which includes a tie and jacket for men and dressy attire for women.
