The Lotte New York Palace has announced the opening of The Gold Room, the newest addition to the property's culinary offerings, celebrating New York City's storied history within the landmarked Villard Mansion. Featuring original gilt ceilings from 1882, The Gold Room invites guests to experience the glamour and opulence of the Gilded Age alongside modern interpretations of classic, hand-crafted cocktails and elevated, yet approachable cuisine.

Here's what they further say:

Open Monday through Friday from 4:00 p.m. to midnight, The Gold Room showcases an innovative menu that complements its iconic architectural setting. Inspired by iconic figures from historic New York City, cocktail highlights include: The Carnegie, which features a Bowmore 12 Year Single Malt Islay Scotch, Luxardo Liqueur, Absinthe, Lemon Zest and garnished with Torched Rosemary; The Mrs. Astor, a Ketel One Citroen Vodka cocktail with Campari, Lemon, Strawberry Reduction, Aquafaba and Balsamic; and Hemingway, suited with a refreshing Banks 5 Island Rum, Calvados, Avena, Lime and topped off with Aquafaba.

Executive Chef Cedric Tovar's small plates are sumptuous and indulgent, inspiring a sense of community in which guests can linger over elegant flavors and intimate conversations. Menu highlights include: Smoked Salmon & Camembert Croquettes served with Winter Radish and a Yuzu

Dressing; Tuna Tartar, with Spiced Soy, Coriander and a touch of New York flare with a side of Bagel Chips; and Grilled Cheese, fit with Clothbound Cheddar, Truffle Brie, and Parmesan on Country Bread plated with House Made Chips.

“The Gold Room is undoubtedly the most iconic architectural dining setting in New York City,” said Rebecca Hubbard, General Manager of Lotte New York Palace. “We are thrilled to invite our hotel guests, local residents and business executives to experience the new innovative cocktail and dining concept of this Renaissance-style bar against the striking backdrop of the historic Villard Mansion.”

From farmhouse breakfast and sweet treats to imaginative cocktails, Lotte New York Palace offers an inspired array of options for dining and drinks. Ranging from the exceptional New American fare at VILLARD, served within the architectural splendor of the Villard Mansion to the intimate, invitation-only cocktail lounge Rarities, the hotel is one of Manhattan’s most iconic luxury properties that caters to the most discerning travelers across the globe. Located in the heart of Midtown just minutes from some of the city’s most prominent restaurants and attractions, cultural institutions and shopping destinations, the historic property boasts a longstanding reputation for exceptional quality and impeccable service.
