Lotte New York Palace

Lotte New York Palace never disappoints when it comes to utilizing their landmark courtyard as a source of celebration. From Christmas tree lightings to U.S. Open badminton tournaments (tennis stars included), the team at Lotte New York Palace is second to none when it comes to one of a kind events – an accolade hard to come by in New York City. Bonus points for using every square inch of their historic hotel space to continually excite and entertain both guests and New Yorkers alike.

While some are calling for a premature end to summer, LNNP is at it again – quenching our thirst for a new era of cocktail hour style, where else, but their famed courtyard. Visitors can sip a crisp Rock Angel rosé from Chateau D’Esclans, nibble on artisanal cheeses and soak in the sun at this one-of-a-kind outdoor setting just steps from Madison Avenue. Each Wednesday this summer, Lotte New York Palace offers its Rock & Rosé at The Palace, a weekly program that brings together live music, festive pink décor and a selection of rosé wines at the iconic Madison Avenue courtyard.

If you're looking to spruce up your (soon, but not so fast) end of summer, Lotte New York Palace is the perfect place to host that afterwork cocktail (it's ok if it actually starts at 4 PM), date night or impress some out of town friends. To future hotel guests – it's a great way to show your city knowledge to us locals that may not know of this gem quite yet.
