

NEWS

People

September 11, 2017

secondlook

See if you can find the differences in these two pictures

BYE-BYE, BIRDIE

Tennis champions Rafael Nadal, 31, and Venus Williams, 37, faced off against each other in a friendly game of badminton at the Lotte New York Palace Invitational on Aug. 24 in New York City. Williams, who has won seven Grand Slam singles titles, ultimately beat Nadal, who entered the U.S. Open Aug. 28 ranked as the top player in men's singles worldwide. The U.S. Open runs through Sept. 10.

10
CHANGES
KEEP SCORE

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

1. The tree, top left, has more branches. 2. The white shuttlecock (or "birdie") is now green. 3. Williams's racket is longer. 4. Williams is no longer wearing a headband. 5. The sunglasses worn by the girl crouched down, far right, are gone. 6. An additional white stripe has been added to the court. 7. Nadal is no longer wearing a watch. 8. The white New York Palace banner, left, is longer. 9. Nadal is now wearing a sock on his right foot. 10. The yellow dress worn by the spectator, back row right, is now red.