Ocean Edge Resort & Golf Club Reopens with Renovation & New Experiences

By Michelle Marie Arean - June 8, 2020

Ocean Edge Resort & Golf Club in Cape Cod reopens today, and debuting a $5.5 million renovation to its Britterige Villas, as well as new private experiences guests can enjoy this summer.

With the re-opening, guests will find the transformation of the property's secluded one-bedroom Britterige Villas. The new look is reflective of the Cape's coastal setting and provides guests with a modern, yet casual retreat.

In order amp up the experience, this summer the resort is debuting a grocery delivery service where guests can pre-order their favorite produce, veggies, snacks, and treats to be delivered and stocked in the villa upon guests' arrival.

Ocean Edge has also launched a series of private, carefully curated experiences spaced across the resort's 429 acres, such as private oyster tours in the Brewster Flats, individual archery lessons, private dining options, private beach fires during sunset with s'mores kits, and more.

And, in order to instill confidence for guests to book, for stays now through June 25, reservations can be canceled with no penalty up to 24-hours prior to check-in. Visits from June 26 through Sep. 3 have an 8-day cancellation policy. In addition, Healthcare workers receive 50 percent off stays for their heroic efforts as they enjoy some well-deserved relaxation.
