HOLIDAYING ON THE PARADISE ISLAND OF BARBADOS JUST GOT MUCH EASIER!

- BARBADOS TO END TESTING FOR FULLY VACCINATED TRAVELLERS –

With the news that Barbados will further relax its Covid-19 entry rules by ending its pre-travel testing requirement for fully vaccinated arrivals later this week, there has never been a better time to book!

From Wednesday 25 May, fully vaccinated travellers to Barbados will no longer have to take a Covid-19 test to enter the country.

Barbados has also softened its rules on the wearing of masks and face coverings, which are now only mandatory in indoor public spaces and on public transport. Outdoors, they are optional.

Non fully vaccinated travellers will still be required to present evidence of a recent negative test for Covid-19.
