About O'Reilly Hospitality Management, LLC

O'Reilly Hospitality Management, LLC (“OHM”) was formed by Tim O'Reilly in November of 2007, and was born from an intense desire to provide a unique, enjoyable and consistent guest experience through competent, attentive, and team-oriented hospitality management. The company started by managing the Doubletree Hotel Springfield and through the diligent efforts of Chief Operating Officer Brian Sims and many other determined managers and employees, lifted the hotel consistently to the top three Doubletree Hotels in the world, with regard to guest service scores. The OHM management team and Doubletree Hotel Springfield also won the prestigious Care Cup in the second quarter of 2010, signifying that the hotel had achieved a significant level of overall excellence in the eyes of Hilton Hotels Corp. In addition to Doubletree Hotel Springfield and Hilton Garden Inn Springfield, OHM also manages three Houlihan's Restaurant and Bars in Missouri, Yellowstone Valley Lodge and Paradise Valley Grill in Montana, and Baymont Branson in Missouri.
