FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Houlihan's Restaurants of Springfield, Missouri raise funds to help Isabel's House strengthen families in the Ozarks.

Springfield, MO – Houlihan's South and Houlihan's at Doubletree hosted their second annual Isabel's Tree fundraiser to benefit Isabel's House- The Crisis Nursery of the Ozarks. Total funds raised- $20, 782.

"On behalf of O'Reilly Hospitality Management and both Houlihan's Restaurants here in Springfield, we would like to thank our patrons for their generous donations and support. We could not have done it without all of you who bought bulbs to help us light Isabel's Tree. We are very glad to have been a part of this fundraising event again this year. It is our plan to continue this fundraiser and to continue raising awareness for Isabel's House in the years to come," said Tim O'Reilly, Houlihan's owner and managing member of the O'Reilly Hospitality entities.

Both Houlihan's Restaurants in Springfield had Christmas trees on their patios throughout the month of December that were lit as donations were made to Isabel's Tree. Bulbs were sold in the restaurant, and more were lit for every donation that was made. All proceeds went to Isabel's House, a local crisis nursery. The mission of Isabel's House, the Crisis Nursery of the Ozarks, is to provide immediate refuge for children ages birth to twelve whose families are in crisis. By partnering with families and the community, it is their mission to strengthen families and prevent child abuse and neglect in Southwest Missouri.

About Houlihan's
