Additionally, our partnership with BigShots and

ClubCorp has been a very positive experience that we look to replicate all over the Midwest, so this will be our showcase BigShots Golf facility!”

Non-golfing players, families and children will enjoy games such as Knockout and Pinball, as well other fun, interactive games.

Reflecting a broader consumer, BigShots Golf meets the demand for more recreational and entertainment experiences in Springfield. Construction for BigShots Golf is projected to be a 9-month project timeline.

“I am so excited about this latest groundbreaking of BigShots Golf, our second this month with O’Reilly Hospitality Management”, says David Pillsbury, CEO of ClubCorp. “This is a milestone for BigShots Golf and for O’Reilly Hospitality Management after months of collaborative planning. O’Reilly Hospitality has been a great partner to have as we set out on this journey to introduce the BigShots Golf state-of-the-art technology. BigShots Golf offers exactly that but for every member of the family. The games are visually compelling and designed for players of every age and skill level to play together.
