BroughtonHotels to open Park James Hotel in California's Silicon Valley

by Mick Tan | Sep 13, 2018 4:12am

Park James Hotel, part of BroughtonHOTELS, is scheduled to open as a 61-room luxury boutique hotel on September 24.

In Menlo Park, Calif., the Park James Hotel, part of BroughtonHotels, is scheduled to open as a 61-room luxury boutique hotel on September 24. Parisa O'Connell Interior Design was involved in bringing the project to life.

Upon entering the lobby of the property located in Menlo Park, guests will see the saying "No Strangers Here, Only New Friends" etched upon the entryway. Subtle Irish nuances will be seen into the design, hinting at Menlo Park's heritage and history.

Connectivity will be an important feature of the Park James with social and work spaces going to be interchangeable. The lobby will lead to an indoor/outdoor bar, while the O-V Courtyard will have an outdoor lounge with movable seating, communal tables and Irish throws.
