Park James Hotel hosts grand opening party

by LINDA HUBBARD GULKER on NOVEMBER 5, 2018

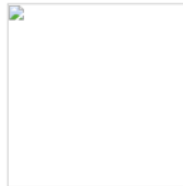

The scene was electric in more ways than one at the Park James Hotel in Menlo Park last Thursday night (Nov. 1) where 500 invited guests had gathered to sip, nibble and listen to the sounds of The English Beat (yes, that '80s band).

While managed by broughtonHOTELS, the father/son duo who developed the hotel, Jim and Jeff Pollock, have deep local ties, as chronicled in this July InMenlo post. Both were on hand to welcome their guests and celebrate all the people who contributed to making the hotel a reality.

"This property is uniquely designed for Menlo Park," said Jeff. "It's a place to see old friends and meet new friends."
