Plunge Beach Hotel Offering Black Friday Deals,
*Oceanfront Destination Inviting Guests to Thaw Out from Unseasonal Frigid Weather

LAUDERDALE-BY-THE-SEA (November 19, 2018) - With freezing temperatures affecting most of the country, Plunge Beach Hotel, Lauderdale-by-the-Sea's newest, oceanfront resort is welcoming guests to ditch the sleet and snow for sun and sand. In business and going strong for more than a year, the hotel has become a popular destination for travelers from around the globe and is currently offering a variety of discounts when reservations are booked direct.

To celebrate the holiday season, Plunge Beach Hotel is offering a special Black Friday promotion with discounted room rates on reservations made November 23, 2018 through Cyber Monday, November 26, 2018. When booked direct, guests can stay for $119/night through December 20, 2018 and only $139/night for stays in January, 2019.

With convenient access from three South Florida international airports and Port Everglades, the town attracts visitors to its natural reefs for off-shore scuba diving, its renowned fishing pier and walkability to a variety of charming shops and restaurants. Managed by Hospitality Ventures Management Group, the 163-room oceanfront hotel complex is located at 4660 El Mar Drive between A1A and the Atlantic Ocean.
