

DECOR MAINE

| ARCHITECTURE ART DESIGN LIFE STYLE TRAVEL FOOD |

ESSAY BY SARAH BRAUNSTEIN

$4.99

12

0 74470 68120 5

NOV/DEC 2018

The star of this dish is actually our honey, harvested from our own bees on the Congress Street rooftop at Union. The textures of this dish are contrasting and complementary all at once—the creaminess of the Burrata, sweetness from the honey, smoothness of the pumpkin butter and squash, and the savory, nuttiness of the Egyptian Dukkah, which gives the dish a slight crunch. Every bite is a little different and that's what we want. This is Maine November harvest meets Middle Eastern flavor and the perfect starter to a Fall dinner.

BURRATA

Honey Roasted Squash • Pumpkin Butter • Hazelnut Dukkah

Plated on Dudson, Evo Pearl Collection

Josh Berry is the Executive Chef
at Union Restaurant in The Press Hotel