THE RESORT AT PEDREGAL

After cruising through the only privately-owned tunnel in Mexico, you'll arrive at The Resort at Pedregal, home to one of the most romantic restaurants in Mexico, El Farallon. Nestled into the rocky cliffs, this resort is one you won't want to leave. All accommodations include a private plunge pool and the celestial-inspired Luna y Mar is our top pick for the best spa in Mexico. While the resort's ocean is not swimmable, the expansive infinity-edge swimming pool is so close that waves sometimes lap into the pool. Receive some of the most personalized service from the resort's staff who are members of the esteemed Les Clefs d'Or Concierge Services. You can spot these special members by the crossed gold key symbols on their collars.

BEST RESORTS ★ PUEBLO BONITO PACIFICA
GOLF & SPA RESORT

This adults-only retreat is the only all-inclusive to make our list of top resorts. While the resort includes all the irresistible amenities of an all-inclusive, it certainly doesn't feel like one. The food and drinks are on par with some of the best resorts and its newest resort-within-a-resort The Towers at Pacifica offer an extra level of luxury. Guests of The Towers can kick back in an exclusive VIP lounge and are treated to 24-hour service from butlers who have undergone meticulous training from one of the most exclusive butler and front-of-house training schools in the world: British Butler Institute. ARMONIA SPA AT PUEBLO BONITO RESORTS

Armonia Spa has five spa settings at Pueblo Bonito resorts, including four in Cabo San Lucas and one in Mazatlán. The spas feature their own 100-percent certified-organic cosmetic line along with three new organic treatments that use natural ingredients, grown organically and handmade. Golfers can take advantage of the two new golf massages that focus on the hamstrings and upper and lower back using Quiropractic, a therapeutic sports massage that uses the hardness and pores of golf balls for muscle fiber separation, similar to stone massages. BEST SPAS ★ THE SPA AT ESPERANZA AT ESPERANZA, AN AUBERGE RESORT

Soak up the many benefits of lime, which is used in many of The Spa at Esperanza's treatments as its juices and oils help promote fat burning, protect against infection and provide a boost of antioxidants. The spa's signature water passage helps loosen muscles and stimulate the lymphatic system to prepare the body for the spa treatment and features a warm-spring soaking pool, steam caves and a cool waterfall rinse. Guests can also choose from 35 complimentary fitness classes per week, from beach bootcamp to Reformer Pilates. ESPERANZA.AUBERGERESORTS.COM

PUERTO LOS CABOS

Puerto Los Cabos features two courses from some of golf's most esteemed designers, Jack Nicklaus and Greg Norman. The Marina Course has 18 holes of Jack Nicklaus Signature golf while the Mission Course features nine holes of Greg Norman Signature golf. Both courses are backdropped by the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains with desert rolling foothills and views of the sea from many of the holes. Two comfort stations with culinary palapas, bartenders and chefs complete the experience. The new Golf Clubhouse recently opened in December with a spacious, modern member's lounge and café.

QUIVIRA

Perhaps one of the most breathtaking courses in Cabo, the Jack Nicklaus Signature course at Quivira Golf Club is open only to members and resort guests of Pueblo Bonito. The stunning course boasts more oceanfront exposure than any other course in Los Cabos and has the fewest number of formal bunkers (roughly 40) of any of the courses Jack Nicklaus has built. The layout includes dramatic cliffs, dunes and rolling foothills and two lighthouses, one of which—Faro Viejo—is the oldest standing structure in Los Cabos.

PALLMILLA GOLF CLUB

Recognized as the Grand Dame of golf, Palmilla Golf Club was opened in 1992. The 27-hole course was the first Latin American design for Jack Nicklaus and offers views of the Sea of Cortez from every hole, plus five sets of staggered tees, stunning fairways, four lakes and shifts in elevation. The three courses (Arroyo, Mountain, Ocean) are perched on deep canyon arroyos surrounded by carbon cacti and provide a challenging landscape.

DIAMANTE

Tee it up along the Pacific Ocean at Diamante, a 1,500-acre private resort that's home to Tiger Woods' first completed golf course design El Cardonal. Opened in 2014, the strategic championship course is styled after the courses of Southern California and is playable for all skill levels. The internationally ranked Dunes Course by Davis Love III was Diamante's first course to debut in 2009 and has since earned the title of the No. 1 course in Mexico by Golf Digest in 2016 and is currently ranked No. 36 in the "Top 100 Courses in the World" by Golf Magazine. Diamante's third course is the 12-hole par-three Oasis Short Course designed by Tiger Woods. Fun for beginners yet challenging for skilled players, the course weaves its way through more than 400 palm trees and along an eight-acre lake.
