Los Cabos, Mexico (March 15, 2018) – Pueblo Bonito Golf & Spa Resorts is offering a special, limited-time promotion that promises exceptional value for parents traveling with young children. The “Family Getaway” program, applicable at six all-inclusive Pueblo Bonito resorts in Los Cabos and Mazatlan, invites parents to bring up to two children, ages 11 and under, to stay and eat free at up to 50% off published rates.

The participating resorts are:

- Pueblo Bonito Sunset Beach, all-suites oceanfront property set within the exclusive residential development of Quivira Los Cabos
- Pueblo Bonito Los Cabos, a perennial family favorite on Medano Beach in Los Cabos that offers stellar views of the iconic rock formations at Land’s End

- Montecristo Estates Luxury Villas, a luxurious resort community in Los Cabos with beautifully-appointed multi-bedroom villas, each with a private infinity pool

Sunset Beach, a popular choice for vacationing families, offers private beach access, six swimming pools, a children’s pool, and a playground. The resort’s Kids Club invites youngsters to enjoy fun-filled days of arts and crafts, beach activities, pool games, and board games. There are also Spanish language primers, aqua aerobics, cooking classes, and dance lessons led by top instructors. Babysitting for younger children is easily arranged.

The urban-themed Fun Lab at Sunset Beach is a lounge and recreation center built for hard-to-please teenagers with arcade games, a movie theater, and a soda fountain that serves nachos, pizza, hot dogs, popcorn and ice cream.

Pueblo Bonito's dining options have recently expanded. Among the kid-friendly newcomers is The Market at Quivira, a bustling food hall at Sunset Beach with an array of enticing eateries like the American-style Diner, which serves hot dogs, hamburgers, and milkshakes along with vintage rock 'n roll. La Heladeria scoops up homemade ice cream and gelato, while La Creperia turns out the best crepes in Cabo. Also in The Market is El Deli (for sandwiches); El Italiano (brick-oven pizzas); and El Mexicano (tacos, enchiladas, and other Mexican favorites). The Market's dining outlets are included in the package's all-inclusive plan.

Stimulating excursions and exciting off-site adventures also can be organized, from horseback riding to fishing, swimming to zipline canopy tours. Resort concierge assist with all arrangements.

The "Family Getaway" package is only valid with all-inclusive rates and must be booked by May 1 for travel through Dec. 23, 2018. The package cannot be combined with other promotions.
