Brides Who Book Destination Wedding with Property to Receive Deluxe Deal

LOS CABOS, Mexico (March 3, 2020) – If Pueblo Bonito Golf & Spa Resorts wasn't already a prime destination wedding choice, things just got even better. The beachfront resorts, located in Los Cabos at the tip of the Baja Peninsula, are offering a complimentary bachelorette party for the bride who books her wedding at any one of the four all-inclusive properties.

Set against the dramatic backdrop of the Pacific Ocean and regarded as one of the world's most romantic collection of resorts, Pueblo Bonito is giving brides the perfect relaxation getaway before the big day. Brides may select from one of four all-inclusive Pueblo Bonito resorts – Los Cabos, Rosé, Sunset Beach or Pacifica – for their bachelorette party. The “Book a Wedding and the Bachelorette Party is on Us” offer includes:

- Three nights in luxury accommodations (one room) for bride and her maid of honor
- Champagne welcome
- All-inclusive food and beverage
- Two 50-minute spa services at Armonia Spa

“For brides who have long dreamt of exchanging vows with her groom on a white sandy beach overlooking turquoise-blue waters in a sun-kissed tropical paradise, we think we have the perfect venue,” said Maira Gallegos, Group Sales Director, Pueblo Bonito Golf & Spa Resorts. “And the complimentary bachelorette party is merely icing on the cake!”

As an additional option, brides can also consider one of Pueblo Bonito’s three resort hotels in Mazatlan, including Emerald Bay Resort & Spa, a stylish beachfront property ranked among the “Top 15 Resort Hotels in Mexico” by the readers of Travel + Leisure.

No matter the size of the wedding – from 20 to as many as 200 guests – Pueblo Bonito has a personal wedding specialist, choice of numerous venues and backdrops, and numerous on-site vendors (photographers, videographers, florists, linens, entertainment) to make planning a breeze. An international culinary team also works with the bride and groom to customize menus and beverage options. Moreover, the resort’s wedding specialist will ensure the bride and groom understand the legal requirements and documents needed to get married in Mexico.

The Los Cabos and Rosé resorts are located in the heart of the action on Médano Beach, which is lapped by calm, swimmable waters and lined with clubs, bars and restaurants. Médano Beach can be a non-stop party, but also perfect for water sports, with kayaks, stand-up paddleboards and jet skis available for rent.

For a more tranquil getaway, Pacifica and Sunset Beach are set within the exclusive Quivira Los Cabos resort community, a sheltered enclave ringed by mountains just 15 minutes from downtown. Stroll the 2.5-mile-long beach, splash in the spacious pools, soak in a hot tub, enjoy an array of dining options, and stargaze the brilliant night sky after dark.

Adding to the convenience of a destination wedding at Pueblo Bonito is the nearby presence of Los Cabos International Airport (SJD), the sixth busiest airport in Mexico with myriad domestic and international flight options on many of the world’s major airlines.
