"This property promises to become one of the most upscale resorts in one of the world's exclusive destinations in the world." Expected to open in early 2021, The St. Regis Los Cabos at Quivira will be an integral part of the 1,850-acre master-planned Quivira community on the Pacific side of Cabo San Lucas. "Our goal is to establish one of the most ambitious residential resort developments in all of Mexico," said Alberto Coppel, C.E.O. of Quivira Los Cabos and Pueblo Bonito Golf & Spa Resorts. "The St. Regis hotel, coupled with a super upscale residential component fronting a 2.5-mile stretch of beach below the cliff-top holes at Quivira Golf Club, will create a new standard for luxury in Los Cabos."

Conveniently situated just over six kilometers west of Cabo San Lucas, The St. Regis Los Cabos at Quivira will offer easy access to exciting amenities and attractions, including the world-class Jack Nicklaus Signature golf course at Quivira Golf Club, exceptional fishing, and distinctive dining.

Quivira (pronounced key-vee-ra), Mexico's premier luxury residential community, is situated at Land's End on the Baja Peninsula, with nearly three miles of pristine golden beaches, picturesque desert cliffs and panoramic ocean views. This rarefied enclave, a paradise of elegance, serenity and service, is already home to Pueblo Bonito Sunset Beach, Montecristo Estates Luxury Villas, Pueblo Bonito Pacifica, The Towers at Pacifica and a pair of residential communities, Copala and Coronado. The Market at Quivira, a recent addition, offers a unique culinary “food hall” experience. Quivira Golf Club occupies a spectacular natural landscape of massive dunes, granite cliffs and desert foothills. Opened to acclaim in 2014, this world-class golf course is complemented by an exclusive oceanfront clubhouse, a superb practice facility and four comfort stations.
