

Quivira Golf Club Receives Golf Digest Editors' Choice Award

Spectacular Jack Nicklaus-designed course chosen for a third time

Los Cabos, Mexico (April 3, 2018) - For the third consecutive year, Quivira Golf Club has received an Editors' Choice Award for Best in Travel 2018 in the May issue of Golf Digest.

"We launched this program with the mission of identifying The Best Things in Golf, with an emphasis on lifestyle properties, products and services," said Max Adler, Golf Digest's editorial director." Noting that the magazine was "overwhelmed by the positive response from readers," the Editors' Choice awards were renewed for a third time this year.

The award comes on the heels of the Quivira's recent selection by Golf Digest for the publication's elite "World's 100 Greatest Golf Courses" roster.

Golf Digest's description of Quivira Golf Club in its online edition is accurate. "At the tip of Baja (California) Sur is the newest of more than a dozen Jack Nicklaus layouts in Mexico, and perhaps his most compelling, with holes along and atop granite cliffs and sand dunes overlooking the Pacific," the report stated.

Access to Quivira Golf Club is reserved exclusively for owners in the adjacent Quivira Los Cabos communities of Copala, Coronado, Novaispania and Montecristo. Pueblo Bonito Resort guests, the closest being the adults-only, beachfront Pueblo Bonito Pacifica Golf & Spa Resort, also may play the award-winning golf course.

Golf Digest inaugurated its Editors' Choice Best in Golf awards in 2016 to extend its service franchises (100 Greatest Courses, Best Teachers, Hot List, etc.) into "rating the best of everything in the total golf lifestyle," including top American and international resorts.

A Jack Nicklaus Signature course opened in 2014, Quivira is one of the most spectacular golf venues in the hemisphere. This world-class layout, marked by sheer cliffs, massive dunes and rolling foothills, features dazzling views and breathtaking drops from tee to fairway. In a sun-splashed destination celebrated for its unique ocean-desert-mountain ecosystem, Quivira offers more oceanfront exposure than any other course in Los Cabos, with views of the Pacific from every hole. For avid players, the challenge presented by Quivira is every bit as scintillating as the views.

"Whether it's a buddies' trip or a getaway with our significant other, what we seek from a golf resort is an experience greater than our usual weekend round," Golf Digest said of its selection criteria. "We want to be pampered on and off the fairways," noting that "the joy of a great golf resort" is that "it's overstocked with activities and diversions, and we get to pick our pleasures."
