Rhone Valley

This is one of the great rivers of Western Europe. The region is basically separated into the Northern Rhone and the Southern Rhone. In the North, where Hermitage, Croze-Hermitage and Cornas are found, the grape variety is Syrah. The Southern Rhone wines of Gigondas and the famous Chateauneuf-du-Pape are typically a blend of Syrah, Grenache, Cinsault, and Mourvedre.

Bordeaux

The wines of Bordeaux span several communes or villages along the Garonne and Dordogne rivers that empty into the Gironde estuary. They include Saint-Estephe, Pauillac, Saint-Julien, and Margaux in the Medoc; to Graves and Sauternes in the south; as well as Pomerol and Saint-Emilion to the east. They are usually a varying blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Petite Verdot and Malbec.

“Premier Grand Cru Classe” (First Great Growths)

In 1855, by request of Napoleon III's Exposition Universelle in Paris, wine brokers were asked to rank the wines of the Médoc according to price. The brokers agreed on a five-class classification of 61 of the leading Medoc châteaux and the most prominent Graves château, Haut-Brion.. Saint Emilion was later classified in 1955 and the wines of Pomerol have never been classed. It is also interesting to note that the 1855 classification listed only four first growths; Chateau Haut Brion, Margaux, Lafite and Latour. Chateau Mouton was not elevated to first growth until 1973.

Château Haut Brion

Château Haut Brion Pessac-Leognan (Graves) 1982 $900.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “This is the best Haut-Brion since 1959 and perhaps one of the best Bordeaux we have ever tasted. It has loads of character, packed to the brim with fruit and tannins. A wine for the next century... 99 Points.”

Château Haut Brion Pessac-Leognan (Graves) 1995 $600.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “A splendid Haut-Brion with wonderful elegance. Refined tannins. Dark-colored, with beautiful ripe berry, cherry and very smoky nuances. Full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a long, plush texture on the finish....92 points

Château Haut Brion Pessac-Leognan (Graves) 1996 $625.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “Seductive Haut-Brion. Complex, with cinnamon, vanilla, cherry, berry and dried fruits on the nose and palate. Full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a polished, caressing texture....91 Points.”

Château Haut Brion Pessac-Leognan (Graves) 2001 $500.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “Intense aromas of violets, berries and spices follow through to a full-bodied palate, with layers of supersilky tannins and a long, long finish. Very classic in style. All in elegance and length. I like it better than the 2000...95 Points.”

Chateau Latour

Château Latour Pauillac 1966 $ 900.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “The 1966 is just about at its peak. Medium red color with an amber hue. Shows plum, iodine, tobacco and mint aromas. Full-bodied, with fine tannins and plenty of sweet plum, it goes on and on at the finish...92 Points.”

Château Latour Pauillac 1989 $ 740.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “Dark ruby color. Intense aromas of plums, berries and spices with highlights of cinnamon. Full-bodied, massive, adding loads of chewy tannins. Mouth puckering young thing...97 Points.”

Château Latour Pauillac 1997 $ 400.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “Delicious now. Lovely aromas of tobacco, toasted oak, cherry and meat. Medium- to full-bodied, with well-integrated tannins and a soft and fruity aftertaste...88 Points.”

Château Latour Pauillac 2001 $ 550.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “Extremely attractive aromas of blackberries and currants with just a hint of mineral and oak. Full-bodied, with silky tannins and a long, long finish. As it was from barrel; powerful and fast. Serious stuff...95 Points.”

Chateau Lafite Rothschild

Château Lafite Rothschild Pauillac 1995 $ 750.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “Here's the best Lafite in ages. It's polished Bordeaux, extremely sophisticated and harmonious, with blackberry, and dark chocolate and olive aromas. Full-bodied and very silky, with a lovely fruity chocolate aftertaste...95 Points.”

Château Mouton Rothschild

Château Mouton-Rothschild Pauillac 1966 $ 800.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “A lovely, mature claret, with sweet fruit, Tobacco, cedar and blackberry flavors and earthy tones. The finish is thinning, but elegant ...88 Points.”

Pinot Noir

This distinguished and celebrated grape produces all of the great reds from the Burgundy region of France. Although it is known to be a fragile and difficult grape, at their best, wines made from Pinot Noir have a subtlety and elegance unmatched by any other wine. In recent years, it has been widely planted in the cooler climate areas of Carneros, Russian River, and Sonoma County areas of California and the Willamette Valley of Oregon.

Zinfandel

Although this red grape is almost exclusively planted in California and considered to be a truly American varietal, its origins are most likely Italian. It has been shown to be almost identical to the Primitivo grape of southeast Italy. In more recent studies, it has been concluded that zinfandel probably came from the Crljenak grape of Croatia. Zinfandel lends itself to many styles of wine from the famous “white” or blush, to light and fruity Beaujolais styles, to ripe, jammy, rich, and long lived.

“Cult Wines”

According to many critics the inner circle of California's top cults encompasses nine wines. They include eight Napa Valley Cabernets: Araujo Eisele Vineyard, Bryant Family Vineyard, Colgin, Dalla Valle Maya, Grace Family Vineyards, Harlan Estate, Screaming Eagle and Shafer Hillside Select as well as one Chardonnay: Marcassin.

Bryant Family, Napa Valley 1998 $1260.00

The Wine Spectator wrote: “Supple, polished, rich and complex, with pretty anise, currant, blackberry, herb, sage and dill. Very well done... 88 Points.”*

Vineyard 29, “Grace Family Clone”, Napa Valley 1997 $ 700.00

Robert Parker wrote: “Sweet, rich, full, and concentrated-a deep ruby/purple color is followed by a pure black currant fruit intertwined with tobacco, vanillin, and spice. This lush, full-bodied effort displays sweet tannin, and cuts a powerful swath across the palate. The finish reveals high extraction and harmony. 94 Points.”*

Meritage and Bordeaux Style Blends

In 1988, a group of American vintners formed The Meritage Association to identify handcrafted wines blended from the traditional "noble" Bordeaux varietals primarily Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot. "Meritage" was coined to identify wines that represent the highest form of the winemaker's art of blending, and distinguish these wines from the more generic "red table wines."

Cabernet Sauvignon

One of the most prized of all red wine grapes; it is the one of the main varieties of the Bordeaux region of France as well as California. This is a very sturdy, hardy and long lived grape that has a firm tannic backbone and is very age worthy.

Red Wines of America Large Bottle Formats

Many consider the larger bottle format to be the best for aging wine. This is due in part to a greater volume of wine with the same amount of oxidation. Many of the names given to these bottles are taken from biblical characters.

Jeroboam was King of Israel during the traditional year of Rome's founding (753 BC) (4 bottles in Champagne, Burgundy and Rhone/ 6 bottles in Bordeaux)

Rehoboam was a son of Solomon who became king of Judah in 933 BC. (6 Bottles in Burgundy and Rhone)

Methuselah was an antediluvian patriarch described in the Old Testament as having lived 969 years and whose name is synonymous with great age. (8 Bottles in Champagne, Burgundy and Rhone)

Salmanazar was an Assyrian monarch who reigned around 1250 BC; about the time the science of iron smelting was first imported into his kingdom from Anatolia. (12 Bottles in Champagne, Burgundy and Rhone)

Balthazar ("King of Treasures") is the traditional name of one of the Three Wise Men, the other two being Melchior ("King of Light") and Gaspar ("The White One"). (16 Bottles in Champagne, Bordeaux, Burgundy and Rhone)

Nebuchadnezzar originally nabu-kudurri-usur meaning "Nabu protect the boundary," became King of the Chaldean Empire in 604 BC. (20 Bottles in Champagne, Bordeaux, Burgundy and Rhone)

Wines of Colorado

The history of wine making in Colorado dates back to 1883 in the Grand Valley. It is now home to over forty wineries. They have gained much popularity in recent years. Most of the vineyards are located on the western slope in the Grand Junction area where the warmer growing conditions and rich soil favor not only grapes, but apples, peaches, pears and cherries. Colorado wineries produce a wide variety of wines including table wines, fruit wines and even Mead wine.
