WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER

We take our role in your safety and health very seriously...

We are closely monitoring the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommendations regarding coronavirus (COVID-19) and following all guidance from the CDC and local health departments.

We are taking additional steps to ensure the safety of all our guests and employees. Being in Hospitality, these decisions are difficult for us to make as we thrive on touch points and engagement, but touch points are no longer safe, and engagement must be measured, literally. Our goal is to strike a delicate balance between your safety and the level of service you've come to expect from us.

To say a lot has changed would be an understatement. Our outdoor dining “new normal” guidelines are as follows:

- We are only permitted to serve outdoors with specific health guidelines in place. Breakfast will be served in the courtyard and lunch and dinner will be served in both the courtyard and patio. Reservations are required and intended for dining. You can drink while you dine, but you do need to order food.
- We will not be offering valet parking at this time and the limited number of spaces in our surface lot and garage are for overnight hotel guests. As always, street parking is available on a first come, first served basis.

DEER PATH INN

The wellbeing of our guests and employees is of the utmost importance

- In order to best manage safe distancing, we cannot allow congregating and gathering. Because we do not have space available for waiting, please arrive no more than 5 minutes ahead of your reservation time, and with your entire party. Similarly, at the conclusion of your dining experience, we kindly ask that you keep lingering to a minimum as a courtesy to others who also took the time to make a reservation.

- Due to state-issued guidelines, our seating has been carefully laid out. Once your reservation is confirmed, your party size cannot increase without calling first to ensure availability. Given the high demand for reservations, coupled with limited seating, if you arrive with more guests than your reservation was originally made for, it is very likely that we will not be able to accommodate the unexpected increase.

- If you see friends at another table, please be respectful of other diners and their desire to keep a social distance. Do not pull up a chair or gather around for a period of time as it will diminish the required 6' distance needed between you and the next table.

- Per the state-mandate, guests should arrive wearing face masks, which can be removed once seated at your table. Should you need to go back inside to use the restroom, we ask that you put your mask back on.

- Outdoor dining is dependent on the weather. Please watch the forecast. If it begins to downpour rain, after you have been seated, we will pack up your order and send it home with you as we cannot offer any indoor seating or waiting areas under any circumstances.

- Dining guests are not permitted inside the inn other than to access the courtyard or use the restroom. No one will be allowed inside before your reservation time, or after you have finished dining.

- If state or city leaders change the opening date between now and your reserved date for dining, and it impacts your reservation date, you will not be rebooked automatically as we are actively filling dates and space may not be available. We will work with you to rebook your reservation for the next available date.

Cheers!

This is no fun for any of us, we delight in true white glove service, but for now our white gloves are disposable and our service is extra sanitized, at a distance. We are committed to doing whatever we have to do to responsibly welcome you in and make sure everyone feels comfortable and safe.
