2 NIGHTS IN UNION SQUARE, SAN FRANCISCO:

We went back! The first time we traveled to San Francisco was in 2016. (You can read more about that trip here, here, and here!) We fell in love with the city and the beauty of California’s landscape. This year, we had the opportunity to stay at a family friend’s estate in Sausalito, CA on the San Francisco Bay for 3 nights (one of the most beautiful views

Gorgeous shot of the Golden Gate Bridge by my husband, Kevin Ray!

CHECKING INTO THE MARKER SAN FRANCISCO / ACCOMMODATIONS:

After 3 nights staying at our family friend's estate on the San Francisco Bay, we loaded our luggage into our gorgeous Audi A5 Cabriolet (learn more about Silvercar by Audi) and headed to The Marker San Francisco. A mere 30 minutes later, we arrived! When they say it's steps away from Union Square, they aren't kidding! The outside of the hotel is gorgeous! Very French-inspired. Immediately I noticed Tratto, their on-site restaurant which was definitely on my list of places to visit during the last two days of our trip. Inside, the lobby did not disappoint. I nearly felt like we walked into a scene of "Alice and Wonderland!" It is very elegant, quirky, and bold — all swirling together for an extremely fun ambiance.

Marble for days!!! So so so pretty! Yes, Kevin and I walked down the staircase and YES we did feel like royalty. 😊

This pretty room is called “The Study” and hosts complimentary coffee and tea from 5:30am - 10am daily and social hour with complimentary wine Monday through Friday 5pm - 6pm.

Hot pink and black marble in the elevator! Love it!

How adorable is this room? I love the jewel-toned decor!

The blue in this room was just stunning!

Such cute touches on this comfy bed!

The sitting area was perfect! They even provided us with wine, bottled water, and chocolate truffles! 😊

I love the mix of all the different patterns!

Even the bathroom continued with the unique, French-inspired theme!

As you can tell by the photos, everything was impeccably clean and extremely comfortable. We loved the unique decor and little details that The Marker put into the room!

TRATTO RESTAURANT AND BAR AT THE MARKER

the italian food lover.

We ordered:

- (Starter) Herb bread and dipping oil
- (Appetizer) Bruschetta, burrata, oven-dried tomato, upland cress, pea sprouts, agrumato oil
- (Kevin's Main Dish) Duck confit, celery root Tortellini, cauliflower, fried brussels sprouts, sage
- (My Main Dish) Wild arugula, shaved fennel, watermelon radish, parmesan, lemon vinaigrette

I wanted to take a picture of the bruschetta but we ate it so quickly, by the time I remembered, it was gone! lol. Everything was so delicious! We highly recommend visiting!

PARKING AT THE MARKER SAN FRANCISCO:

During our stay, we also partnered with Silvercar by Audi to review their car service (stay tuned for a more detailed post!). Of course, we didn't just want to leave our car parked out on the street so we used The Marker's valet service for two evenings. They were extremely speedy! You simply park in front of the hotel and hand your keys to the concierge! And when you want to pick up your car, you can either

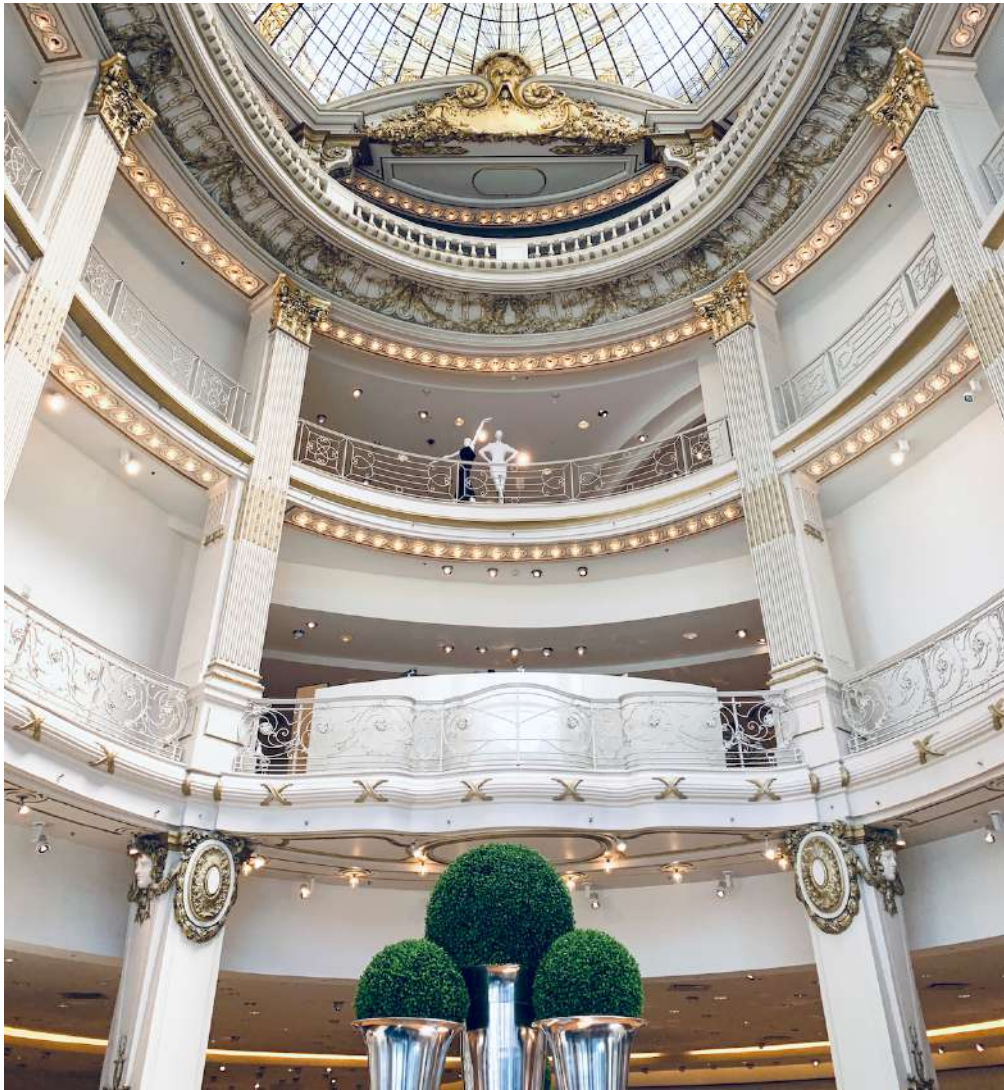

LOCATION

The Marker San Francisco is about a 5-minute walk away from the center of Union Square and only 10-minutes from Chinatown! It just so happens to also be only 5-minutes from one of my favorite stores: Cuyana!

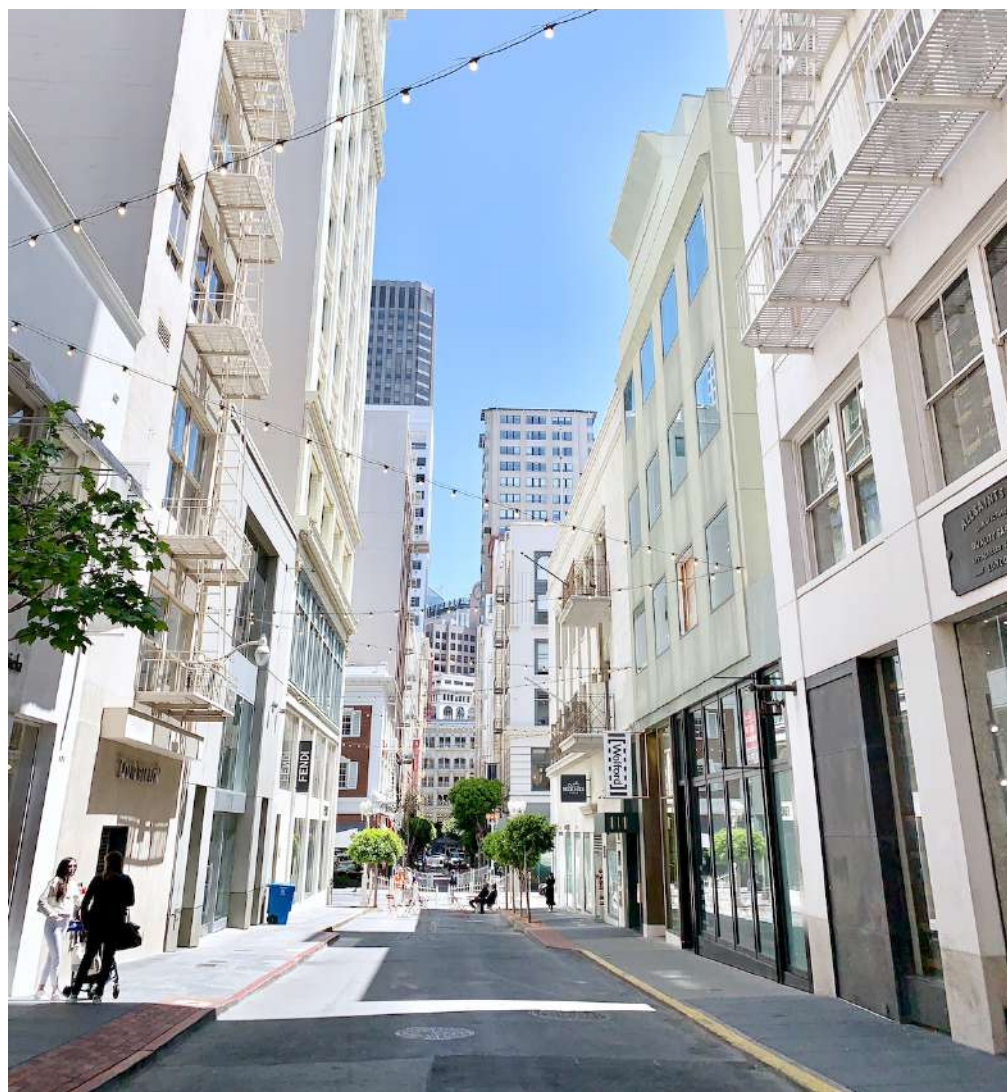

Of course, we stopped at Cuyana and picked up a beautiful monogrammed tote bag!

Neiman Marcus was also a quick walk away and was simply stunning!

Union Square has the most beautiful fluffy palm trees!

Such beautiful streets full of shops and restaurants! All within walking distance from The Marker Hotel!

THE VERDICT

Our stay was truly wonderful and we definitely didn't want to leave. The Marker San Francisco has beautiful accommodations and such friendly staff! We've already been recommending this hotel to our friends and family that are looking for their next adventure!

XOXO,

Amanda
