ELEVATOR GIRL

vodka, vermouth bianco, thyme, lemon, curaçao

An early 1900s photo of an elevator operator at the Martha Washington inspired this cocktail.

R. W. GIBSON

dorothy parker gin, dry vermouth

Named for the hotel's architect, Robert W. Gibson, an English-born designer known for his numerous ecclesiastical commissions in New York

LULU'S PAJAMAS

tequila, aperol, grapefruit, elderflower, hibiscus salt

Louise "Lulu" Brooks moved into the Martha Washington, until she shocked neighbors by exercising on the roof in "flimsy pajamas," and was asked to leave.

GOOD INTENTIONS

american whiskey, grand marnier, amaro lucano

The hotel attracted a number of celebrities and actresses reputed for intrigue and scandal, however men were not allowed above the ground floor as the goal was to provide a "sanctuary" for professional ladies

THE NITTY GRITTY

diplomatico rum, laird's apple brandy, lime, ginger

The Nitty Gritty was the first single recorded by Shirley Ellis, a Bronx-born soul singer of West Indian descent.

BIG EDIE BEALE (SERVES 5) 68

gin, prosecco, passionfruit, aranciata, almond

Edie Ewing Bouvier Beale, aunt to Jacqueline Bouvier (later Jacqueline Kennedy Onasis), was an eccentric and reclusive socialite.
