

BERMUDA RAINY DAY ACTIVITIES

DOCKYARD

Visit the Bermuda Art Center - its diverse and inspirational exhibits are constantly updated, highlighting the best pieces from local artists, some in residence.

Buy a souvenir at Bermuda Craft Market, - the indoor market is the perfect place to find handmade, Bermuda-style candles, sculptures, jewelry, ornaments, cards and more.

Paint your own pottery at the Jon Faulkner Gallery - in Dockyard discover the amazing pottery created at this wonderful gallery and have a go at making your own.

Treat yourself to a little retail therapy at Clocktower Mall - Dockyard

- this mall is perfect for Bermuda souvenirs and gifts

Learn how to blow glass - at Dockyard Glassworks (below), you can try your hand at blowing glass or just enjoy the beautiful glassware that's showcased in their gallery.

Enjoy traditional British ale and a Sunday roast - head to the Frog & Onion Pub in the Royal Naval Dockyard and discover this amazing British-style pub

Step into Bermuda's past - walk out of the rain and into history at the Bermuda Historical Society Museum located at Dockyard. The museum displays antique furniture, coins and artifacts from Bermuda's past, even guns and weaponry.

Try Alex & Pete's Artisan Ice Cream - just because it's raining doesn't mean you can't enjoy this delicious handmade ice cream which is situated underneath the gazebo at the Royal Naval Dockyard.

Stop by the Bermuda Transport Museum, Dockyard - if you're a petrol head, make sure to check out the vintage cars, bikes, carriages and boats on display here.

CENTRAL

Visit the Bermuda Underwater Exploration Institute, on the outskirts of Hamilton - learn about the many shipwrecks that surround the island and discover the secrets of the Bermuda Triangle

Catch the Sea Express - the Sea Express ferries have sheltered indoor seating to keep you dry while you cruise around the stunning Bermuda coastline.

Explore Hamilton City Hall & Arts Center - this government building is also an art museum and theater, perfect for exploring.

Have afternoon tea at The Hamilton Princess - enjoy delicious sandwiches and cakes as well as perfectly made tea served in fine China.

Dance the night away at The Pickled Onion - speaking of cocktails, head to The Pickled Onion for drinks, dancing and amazing live music.

Spend the morning or afternoon at the Masterworks Museum of Bermuda Art - get a closer look at over 1,500 pieces of art from local artists and famous creators like Georgia O'Keeffe.

Feel inspired at the Bermuda National Gallery, located in City Hall Hamilton - discover collections that feature work from West Africa, Europe and Bermuda.

Take a free tour of the Bermuda Perfumery in Hamilton Parish - gorgeous fragrances have been created from the island's flowers since 1928. Take a tour and see how they're made.

EAST

Explore Bermuda Aquarium, Museum and Zoo - Flatts, Smiths Parish

- home to sharks, seals, otters, alligators, tortoises, tropical birds and more. Free for children under five and a must see.

Escape the rain underground - visit Bermuda's Crystal Caves and explore the stunning stalactites and rock formations.

Try Bermuda's favorite drinks - the Rum Swizzle and the Dark 'n Stormy are Bermuda's two signature cocktails. Make sure to try both at any of Bermuda's welcoming bars.

Head to the Tucker House Museum - a museum in St. George's Town that's dedicated to the famous colonial Tucker family.

Tour St. Peter's Church - explore this fascinating Anglican Church, the oldest Anglican Church in the Western Hemisphere, that's stood in St. George's for hundreds of years.

Visit Vedrmont Historic House Museum, in Smiths Parish - the house has remained untouched for 300+ years, giving you amazing insight into what life used to be like in Bermuda.

Discover Bermuda at the World Heritage Center, Waterfront in St. George's - this building is a great resource for visitors as it's packed with educational information, a video room to watch short films and even a charity shop.

RELAXATION

Relax at one of Bermuda's tranquil spas

Receive a deep-tissue massage while you enjoy a peaceful view of the ocean

- La Serena Spa (The Reefs)
- Exhale Sap (Hamilton Princess)
- Grotto Bay Spa (Cave Spa)

Covered Shopping Areas

- Washington Mall in Hamilton City (20 Church St)
- Bermudiana Arcade also in Hamilton (27 Queen St)
- Several large shopping stores on Front Street