

THE SPECTATOR
HOTEL

What

The award-winning Spectator Hotel is Charleston's high-design, distinctive boutique hotel for the well-heeled traveler. Located in the city's charming Historic District, the luxury property features 41 bright, residential-style rooms exuding glamour and comfort through a vibrant, modern setting.

The inspiration for The Spectator has multiple ties to Charleston's rich history. A place to see and be seen, the Spectator represents the Gatsby-era elegance that was found in the bustling French Quarter and Market Street districts where the hotel is located, making it a fitting name for one of the Holy City's premier hotels. The Spectator is inspired by the spirit of the Roaring Twenties, designed with an art deco meets southern charm influence.

As the only hotel in Charleston with personal butler service, The Spectator enchants guests from the moment they enter. Elite luxury is met with the ultimate comfort by meticulously curated service and extensive amenities, including artisanal in-room breakfast, specialty welcome cocktails, and The Bar, The Spectator's renowned 1920's themed cocktail lounge serving seasonal hand-crafted specialty cocktails and bar food with a refined twist.
